WUKOSON DECLARATION

DECLARATION OF GEORGE P. WUKOSON

I, George P. Wukoson, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of New York and before the bars of the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. I am an associate with the law firm of Davis Wright Tremain LLP (“DWT”), counsel to the Plaintiffs in this action, admitted pro hac vice. I submit this Declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Default Judgment Against Defendant Asha Media Group Inc. (“Motion for Default Judgment”). I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein, and, if called upon as a witness, I could and would testify competently about these facts, except for those matters stated expressly upon information and belief, which matters are believed to be true.

2. On March 13, 2015, Plaintiffs initiated the instant lawsuit against the manufacturers of the TVpad, a set-top television box that retransmits unauthorized television programming from China to viewers in the United States. In addition to naming the manufacturers of the device, Plaintiffs also named as defendants various U.S. distributors of the TVpad device, including Defendant Asha Media Group Inc. (“Asha Media”) and its President and sole shareholder Defendant Amit Bhalla.

3. Asha Media is the last remaining active defendant in this lawsuit, as all other defendants have either been dismissed, judgment has been entered against them, or, in the case of Mr. Bhalla, the action is stayed pursuant to the filing of a bankruptcy proceeding. See Dkt. No. 141 (dismissal of GVTv); Dkt. No. 158 (judgment as to Create New Technology and Hua Yang Technology; Dkt. No. 175 (judgment as to Honghui Chen); Dkt. No. 182 (judgment as to Club TVpad Inc. and Bennett Wong; Dkt. No. 107 (judgment as to Newtvpad and Liangzhong Zhou); Dkt. No. 168 (bankruptcy notice of Mr. Balla).

4. On September 22, 2015, Plaintiffs propounded a First Set of Requests for Production on Asha Media. Among other requests, Plaintiffs sought documents reflecting Asha Media’s sales of TVpad Devices and Asha Media’s gross revenue

1 relating to those sales. Asha Media provided written responses on November 24, 2 2015. True and correct copies of excerpts of Asha Media's written responses to 3 Plaintiffs' document demands concerning Asha Media's sales and gross revenue are 4 attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

5 5. On January 12, 2016, Asha Media produced a series of documents in 6 response to Plaintiffs' document requests, including three Excel spreadsheets in 7 response to Request No. 29. Those Excel spreadsheets are entitled 8 "Asha_Media_Group-2013 – Sales_History", "Asha_Media_Group-2014 – 9 Sales_Order_History" and "Asha_Media_Group-2015 – Sales_Order_History". True 10 and correct copies of printouts of these Excel spreadsheets produced by Asha Media 11 are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

12 6. I reviewed the Excel spreadsheets produced by Asha Media in order to 13 determine Asha Media's admitted total gross sales and number of TVpad devices. I 14 determined that Asha Media's sales records reflect sales of TVpad devices from 15 September 2013 through June 15, 2015. After summing gross sales and then 16 subtracting all amounts refunded to customers according to Asha Media's records, I 17 determined that Asha Media's gross sales of TVpad devices totaled $458,227.96 in 18 2013, $1,373,735.56 in 2014, and $313,270.70 in 2015, for a grand total of gross
19 sales equal to $2,145,234.22. I also summed the total number of units of TVpad 20 devices distributed by Asha Media from 2013 through 2015, and determined that 21 Asha Media sold 8,123 TVpad devices over that time period.

22 7. Asha Media's sales records indicate that Asha Media sold 4036 TVpad 23 devices from November 21, 2014 onward—after Asha Media received an emailed 24 copy of DISH's cease and desist letter on November 20, 2014. Sales records further 25 indicate that 2737 of Asha Media's TVpad sales occurred after Asha Media received 26 a second cease and desist letter from DISH on December 19, 2014, which again 27 reiterated to Asha Media that, as a distributor and seller of the TVpad device, it was 28 liable for copyright infringement.

1 8. Asha Media's sales records also indicate that Asha Media was selling 2 TVpad devices as late as June 15, 2015—four days after the Court entered a 3 preliminary injunction in this action on June 11, 2015. (See Dkt. No. 98.)

4 9. On December 8, 2015, Plaintiffs served an amended notice of deposition 5 to Asha Media and its President and sole shareholder, Amit Bhalla, setting their 6 depositions for January 15, 2016. Before I could take Mr. Bhalla's deposition in this 7 action, Mr. Bhalla filed for personal bankruptcy on January 13, 2016, which operated 8 to stay proceedings in this action as to Mr. Bhalla. (Dkt. No. 168). Mr. Bhalla did 9 not appear at the deposition noticed for Asha Media, and I took a non-appearance at 10 Asha Media's deposition on January 15, 2016.

11 10. On June 1, 2016, I served a Notice of rule 2004 Examination Duces
12 Tecum on Amit Bhalla in his personal bankruptcy proceeding. Thereafter, I 13 examined Mr. Bhalla in the matter of In Re: Amit Bhalla, Case No. 8:16-bk-00265-14 KRM on July 12, 2016 and July 13, 2016. A true and correct copy of excerpts from 15 the transcript of Mr. Bhalla's examination is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

16 11. During his deposition, Mr. Bhalla confirmed the following facts relevant 17 to this proceeding, and which Plaintiffs offer pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil 18 Procedure 32(a)(8):

- 19 a. Mr. Bhalla began to sell TVpads after he purchased Asha 20 Media in July 2013 (Tr. 21:17-22, 54:17-22.)
- 21 b. Asha Media's primary revenue-generating business was to 22 sell TVpads (Tr. 23:8-14)
- 23 c. Asha Media maintained inventory of TVpads in warehouses 24 in Los Angeles and Philadelphia. (Tr. 56:1-9)
- 25 d. Asha Media continued to sell TVpads even after receiving 26 two cease and desist letters from Plaintiff DISH on November 27 20, 2014 and December 19, 2014. (Tr. 65:12-66:5, 67:8-17 28 and Depo. Ex. 10.)

- 1 e. Bhalla prepared sales record and refund documents detailing 2 Asha Media's gross sales for 2013 through 2015 and 3 produced those documents to counsel. Although the image of 4 the exhibit used at deposition is difficult to read, Deposition 5 Exhibit 17 is the same series of documents that Plaintiffs 6 received in discovery from Asha Media and which are 7 attached to my declaration as Exhibit 2. (Tr. 94:10-95:8, 8 140:11-19 and Depo. Ex. 17.)
- 9 f. Bhalla admitted that Asha Media provided USB storage 10 devices (also known as "flash drives") along with the TVpads 11 it sold to consumers, and that those USB storage devices 12 contained TVpad apps that consumers could download to the 13 TVpad device; Bhalla stated that he provided these USB 14 devices in order to entice customers to buy the TVpad. (Tr.
15 181:1-9.)
- 16 g. Bhalla also admitted that he used the alias Charles Franco in 17 order to send emails, and he authenticated an email he sent as 18 Franco to Plaintiffs' investigator in which he attached a 19 channel listing featuring Plaintiffs' television channels and 20 trademarks and advertising various Infringing TVpad Apps to 21 access Plaintiffs' programming. (Tr. 181:10-24; 182:18-22 184:18 and Depo. Ex. 33.)

23 12. After initially making an appearance and filing an Answer in this action 24 on April 23, 2015 (Dkt. No. 58), Asha Media subsequently filed a Florida state court 25 liquidation proceeding on or about August 28, 2015. On April 12, 2016, Asha 26 Media's counsel requested leave to withdraw as counsel of record in the instant 27 action, which this Court granted. On May 19, 2016, the Court ordered Asha Media 28 to locate substitute counsel or have its answer stricken and default entered. (Dkt.

1 191.) Asha Media failed to secure alternate counsel, and, on July 8, 2016, the Court
2 set aside Asha Media's answer. (Dkt. 195.) A default also was entered against Asha 3 Media on July 8, 2016. (Dkt. 196.)

4 13. Asha Media is not an infant or incompetent, nor is it a military service 5 member, or otherwise entitled to the exceptions found in the Servicemembers Civil 6 Relief Act (50 App. U.S.C. § 521).

7 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of 8 America that the foregoing is true and correct.

9 Executed this 22nd day of September, 2016.

MCCAULEY DECLARATION

DECLARATION OF CARLA A. MCCAULEY

I, Carla A. McCauley, declare as follows:

1. I am licensed to practice law before all the courts in the State of California and am admitted to the Central District of California. I am a partner at Davis Wright Tremaine LLP (“DWT”), counsel for Plaintiffs China Central Television, China International Communications Co., Ltd., TVB Holdings (USA), Inc., and DISH Network L.L.C. (collectively “Plaintiffs”) in the above-entitled matter. I submit this Declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Default Judgment Against Defendant Asha Media Group Inc. (“Motion for Default Judgment”). I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein, and, if called upon as a witness, I could and would testify competently about these facts, except for those matters stated expressly upon information and belief, which matters are believed to be true.

2. In conjunction with the Motion for Default Judgment, Plaintiffs request all attorneys’ fees incurred in connection with preparing the instant Motion, as well as those fees associated with investigating Asha Media’s liability in this action, including all attorneys’ fees associated with pre-complaint filing investigation, discovery, the successful preliminary injunction, court conferences and mediation preparation. Below is a summary of the background of the attorneys for whom Plaintiffs seek attorneys’ fees in connection with the instant motion as well as a discussion of the invoiced time and pending time requested in conjunction with entry of judgment.

Background of Timekeeping Attorneys

3. Given the widespread and national nature of the infringement of the TVpad devices involved in this action, DWT’s New York attorneys have been, since the outset of this action, the lead timekeepers who have handled litigation strategy. My partners Lacy H. Koonce and Robert Balin, both of whom are licensed to practice law in New York and have been admitted pro hac vice in this action, have

1 been lead counsel for this action since DWT's early investigation into the TVpad, 2 before Plaintiffs determined the proper venue for this litigation.

3 4. Specifically, in February 2014, China Central Television ("CCTV") and 4 China International Communications Co., Ltd. ("CICC") (collectively "CCTV") 5 engaged DWT to investigate the TVpad device, its manufacturer and distributors, and 6 to research CCTV's legal options with respect to the TVpad's broadcast of CCTV's 7 unlicensed television programming. In July 2014, TVB Holdings (USA), Inc.
8 ("TVB") and DISH Network L.L.C. ("DISH") joined CCTV in retaining DWT for 9 purposes of this investigation. Collectively, CCTV, TVB and DISH are referred to 10 as "Plaintiffs". The New York timekeepers who have assisted in this action also 11 include associates Samuel Bayard and George P. Wukoson, and New York-based 12 paralegals, Omar Johnny and Megan Duffy.

13 5. I have been involved in this action since November 2014, once it was 14 determined that the Central District of California was the appropriate venue for the 15 action by Plaintiffs. Prior to and during my maternity leave in 2016, Sean Sullivan, 16 who is of counsel in DWT's Los Angeles office, stepped in to assist Mr. Koonce and 17 Mr. Balin in this matter.

18 6. For those timekeepers whose time is accounted for and requested as part 19 of the attorneys' fees incurred by Plaintiffs in connection with their prosecution of 20 Defendant Asha Media in this action, background details regarding each attorney are 21 set forth below.

22 7. Robert Balin is a 1984 magna cum laude graduate of Temple University 23 School of Law. For more than 30 years, Mr. Balin has represented media clients in 24 intellectual property litigation and in a broad array of other cases. Among many other 25 copyright matters, Mr. Balin represented a group of 20 American magazine 26 publishers (including Time, Inc., The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc., Newsweek, 27 Inc., Forbes Magazine, LLC, US News & World Report, LLC, Hearst Corporation 28 and Playboy Enterprises, Inc.) in securing injunctive relief and a consent order

1 prohibiting a pirate Canadian website called Mygazines from copying plaintiffs'
2 magazines without authorization (Time, Inc., et al v. Budd, et al, 1:08-cv-07392
3 (S.D.N.Y.) and Time, Inc., et al v. Budd, et al, Court File No. 08-CV-00361126
4 (Ontario Superior Court of Justice)); represented CNN in successfully obtaining 5 dismissal on fair use grounds of a copyright infringement suit challenging CNN's use 6 of short film clips in a television news obituary of actor Robert Mitchum, together 7 with an award of attorneys' fees (Video Cinema Films, Inc. v. CNN, Inc., 2001 WL
8 1518264 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 28, 2001) and Video Cinema Films, Inc. v. CNN, Inc., 2004 9 WL 213032 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 3, 2004)); represented book publisher Henry Holt in 10 successfully securing dismissal of copyright infringement claims on the ground that 11 plaintiff's unpublished manuscript was not substantially similar to the children's 12 book published by defendant (Lewinson v. Henry Holt and Co., LLC, 7:07-cv-13 10955 (S.D.N.Y. Sep. 23, 2009) (Dkt. No. 30)); and defended book publisher Farrar, 14 Straus & Giroux and author Thomas Friedman in a copyright infringement suit 15 arising from use of plaintiff's artwork on the cover of Friedman's best-selling book, 16 "The World is Flat." (Miracle v. Galasso, et al, 1:05-cv-09980 (S.D.N.Y.)). For the 17 past 8 years, Mr. Balin has also taught copyright and media law as an adjunct 18 professor at Columbia University School of Law. In addition, he frequently lectures 19 on intellectual property law issues, including making annual presentations on 20 copyright law to visiting Chinese book and magazine publishers at the State 21 University of New York's Levin Institute (and before that at New York University's 22 Center for Publishing). Mr. Balin has also lectured on comparative US/China 23 intellectual property law at the Shantou University School of Journalism in Shantou, 24 China (April 2006) and at the Cheung Kong Graduate School of Business in Beijing 25 China (April 2006); and, most recently, made presentations on Copyright, Trademark 26 and Patents in the Digital Age to Chinese publishers in Shanghai and Nanjing (April 27 2014) at the invitation of China's State Administration of Press, Publication, Radio, 28 Television and Film. Among several other publications, Mr. Balin is the co-author of

1 “Navigating Media Rules in China”, published in GC New York (American Lawyer 2 Media Nov. 13, 2006). Mr. Balin currently co-chairs the Media Law Committee of 3 the International Bar Association, co-chairs the International Media Law Committee
4 of the Media Law Resource Center and is a past chair of DWT’s media practice 5 group. He has received numerous professional accolades for his legal work, 6 including being named one of “America’s Leading Lawyers for Business” in First 7 Amendment Litigation (Nationwide) by Chambers USA for the years 2012-2015; 8 being named one of the “Best Lawyers in America” in Media Law by Best Lawyers 9 for the years 2011-2015; and being selected to “New York Super Lawyers” in the 10 area of Media and Advertising by Thompson Reuters for the years 2006-2009, 2011 11 and 2013-2015. Among other awards for his legal work, Mr. Balin received the 12 Kenneth P. McLaughlin Award of Merit from the National Press Photographers 13 Association in 2014 and the NAACP Presidential Award from the NAACP of New 14 Jersey in 2003.

15 8. Lance Koonce is an intellectual property litigator with two decades of 16 experience representing, inter alia, companies in the television and film industries, 17 including broadcasters, producers and distributors. Mr. Koonce graduated with 18 honors from the University of North Carolina School of Law in 1996, and was 19 involved in some of the earliest legal disputes regarding digital set-top devices. Mr.
20 Koonce has litigated an array of high-profile cases under the Copyright Act and the 21 Lanham Act, including the Mygazines.com copyright infringement case with Mr.
22 Balin discussed supra at Paragraph 9, as well as: Steinbeck v. McIntosh & Otis, Inc.
23 (C.D. Cal. 2015 and Second Circuit 2010), a series of copyright litigations in which 24 Mr. Koonce defended the literary agent for John Steinbeck’s literary properties; 25 Poquito Mas v. Taco Bell (C.D. Cal. 2014), the defense of a trademark infringement 26 action concerning Taco Bell’s “LIVE MÁS” slogan; Oracle America, Inc. v. Google 27 Inc. (Fed. Cir. 2013), in which Mr. Koonce submitted an amicus brief on behalf of 28 former Register of Copyrights Ralph Oman supporting Oracle’s position in an

1 infringement action that the menu command structure of software is protectable 2 under Copyright Act; Willagirl LLC v. The Wella Corporation (S.D.N.Y. 2011), in 3 which Mr. Koonce represented Procter & Gamble subsidiary in a trademark 4 infringement suit arising out of plaintiff's proposed use of the "Willa" trademark; 5 Clifton Mallery v. NBC Universal (2d Cir. 2010), in which Mr. Koonce represented 6 NBC in a copyright action claiming that the television program "Heroes" infringed 7 plaintiffs' copyright in a documentary and manuscript about their lives; Salinger v.
8 Colting (2d Cir. 2010), in which Mr. Koonce represented J.D. Salinger in a copyright 9 infringement action against the author, publisher and distributor of a self-proclaimed 10 sequel to "The Catcher in the Rye."; Jonesfilm v. Lions Gate Entertainment (9th Cir.
11 2008), defense of an infringement claim involving the motion picture "9 1/2 Weeks"; 12 Shine v. David M. Childs and Skidmore, Owings & Merrill (S.D.N.Y. 2006), in 13 which Mr. Koonce represented architectural firm that designed original Freedom 14 Tower in action involving alleged copyright infringement of architectural 15 design. Mr. Koonce is a frequent speaker and writer on intellectual property issues, 16 including recent articles on the Second Circuit's decision in The Authors Guild v.
17 Google, Inc. the Ninth Circuit's decision in Lenz v. Universal Music Corp. on 18 copyright fair use. Mr. Koonce is the current chair of the Law & Technology 19 Committee of the New York County Lawyers Association, and the former chair of 20 the Grants Committee of the Copyright Society of the United States.

21 9. Samuel Bayard graduated summa cum laude from Cornell Law School 22 in 2001. Since 2010, Mr. Bayard has been an associate at DWT, focusing his 23 litigation practice on media and intellectual property law, assisting clients in a range 24 of matters including copyright, trademark, libel, privacy, right of publicity, and First 25 Amendment litigation. Prior to his work with DWT, Mr. Bayard was an associate at 26 Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, a fellow at the Berkman Center for Internet & 27 Society at Harvard University, and a Lecturer on Law at Harvard Law School. Mr.
28 Bayard also clerked for Judge Lewis Kaplan in the United States District Court

1 Southern District of New York from September 2001 to September 2002. Mr.
2 Bayard has extensive litigation experience in federal and state courts, at both the trial 3 and appellate levels, and has assisted with a jury trial in a high-profile copyright case 4 in 2013. Mr. Bayard was selected as a “New York Rising Star” by Thomson Reuters 5 in 2012.

6 10. Sean Sullivan is a 2003 graduate of the University of Southern 7 California, Gould School of Law and was admitted to practice law in the State of 8 California in 2003. Mr. Sullivan has been Counsel at DWT since 2015. Mr. Sullivan 9 has had extensive experience throughout his career with intellectual property, 10 complex commercial litigation, and class-action defense. Mr. Sullivan has been 11 selected as a “Southern California Rising Star” from 2009-2011 and 2013 in the area 12 of Intellectual Property Litigation.

13 11. George Wukoson is a 2008 graduate of the New York University School 14 of Law. He was admitted to practice law in the State of New York in 2008. He has 15 been an associate at DWT since 2012. Prior to Mr. Wukoson’s work with DWT, he 16 was an associate with Dechert LLP in New York, New York. Mr. Wukoson has over 17 seven years litigation experience, has second chaired and assisted with evidentiary 18 hearings, assisted with appeals before the New York Court of Appeals and the 19 Second Circuit, and litigated numerous matters across a wide array of commercial 20 litigation, intellectual property and criminal matters in federal court for clients in a 21 number of industries. Mr. Wukoson’s substantive experience spans trademark, 22 copyright, cybersquatting, entertainment, advertising, and a broad range of 23 commercial/business litigation matters. He was awarded the Legal Aid Society’s Pro 24 Bono Publico Award in 2009, 2011 and 2013.

25 12. I am a 2002 graduate of the University of California, Berkeley, Boalt 26 Hall School of Law. I was admitted to practice law in the State of California in 2002.
27 I have been a partner at DWT since 2014. Prior to my work with DWT, I was an 28 associate with Steptoe & Johnson in Century City, California; Alschuler Grossman

1 Stein & Kahan LLP in Santa Monica, California, and with Irell & Manella in Century 2 City, California. In 2002, I clerked for the Honorable Alicemarie H. Stotler for the 3 Central District of California. In 2004, I clerked for the Honorable Pamela A. Rymer
4 for the Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. In addition to my experience clerking 5 in the federal courts, I have over a decade of litigation experience, have second 6 chaired and assisted with jury and bench trials, argued and assisted with appeals 7 before the California Court of Appeals and the Court of Appeals for the Ninth 8 Circuit, and litigated numerous matters across a wide array of commercial litigation 9 and intellectual property matters in federal court for clients in a number of industries.
10 My substantive experience spans intellectual property, entertainment, advertising, 11 privacy, unfair competition law, and a broad range of commercial/business litigation 12 matters. I have been selected as a "Southern California Rising Star" from 2007 13 through 2008 and 2013, and as a "SuperLawyer" from 2014 through 2016. I was 14 awarded the ACLU's Artistic Freedom Award on June 8, 2012.

15 Reasonableness of Timekeeper Rates

16 13. The billing rates for Robert Balin, a partner in DWT's New York office, 17 were $562.50 per hour in 2014, $585 per hour in 2015, and $616.50 per hour in 2016
18 for this matter. The billing rates for Lacy H. Koonce, a partner in DWT's New York 19 office, was $472.50 per hour in 2014, $495 per hour in 2015 and $522 per hour in 20 2016 for this matter. The billing rates for Carla A. McCauley, a partner in DWT's 21 Los Angeles office, were $441 in 2014, $459 per hour in 2015 and $486 per hour in 22 2016 for this matter. The billing rate for Sean Sullivan, of counsel in DWT's Los 23 Angeles office, was $468 per hour for this matter. The billing rate for Samuel 24 Bayard, an associate in DWT's New York office, was $436.50 for this matter. The 25 billing rates for George Wukoson, an associate in DWT's New York office, were 26 $382.50 per hour in 2014, $414 per hour in 2015 and $450 per hour in 2016 for this 27 matter. The billing rates for DWT's New York paralegals, Omar Johnny and Megan 28

1 Duffy, were $144 per hour in 2015 and $153 to $238.50 per hour in 2016 for this 2 matter.

3 14. The hourly rates of Plaintiffs' litigation team reflect discounted rates 4 from DWT's customary rates and are consistent with prevailing market rates in Los 5 Angeles and New York. As measured by the National Law Journal's 2014 Billing 6 Survey, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 4, the average 2014 partner billing 7 rate for partners at comparable New York-based firms include: Curtis, Mallet-8 Prevost, Cost & Mosle ($800 average); Davis Polk & Wardell ($975 average); 9 Debevoise & Plimpton ($1055 average); Dechert ($900 average); Dentons ($700 10 average); DLA Piper ($765 average); Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson 11 ($1000); Gibson Dunn & Crutcher ($980 average); Greenberg Traurig ($763 12 average); Jones Day ($745 average); Kaye Scholer ($860 average); Kelley Drye & 13 Warren ($640); Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel ($921 average); Orrick Herrington 14 & Sutcliffe ($845 average); Paul Hastings ($815 average); Paul Weiss, Rifkind, 15 Wharton & Garrison ($1040 average); Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom 16 ($1035 average); Stroock, Stroock & Lavan ($960 average); White & Case ($875 17 average); Willkie Farr & Gallagher ($950 average). California-based firms further 18 confirm the reasonableness of DWT's rates for its partners and of counsel: Jeffer, 19 Mangels, Butler & Mitchell ($690 average); Manatt, Phelps & Phillips ($740 20 average); Nossaman ($579 average); O'Melveny & Myers ($715 average); Quinn 21 Emanuel Urquart & Sullivan ($915 average); Sedgwick ($425 average); and 22 Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton ($685 average).

23 15. As measured by the National Law Journal's 2014 Billing Survey, the 24 average 2014 associate billing rate for the comparable New York-based firms 25 include: Curtis, Mallet-Prevost, Cost & Mosle ($480 average); Davis Polk & Wardell 26 ($615 average); Debevoise & Plimpton ($490 average); Dechert ($530 average); 27 Dentons ($425 average); DLA Piper ($510 average); Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver &
28 Jacobson ($595 average); Gibson Dunn & Crutcher ($590 average); Greenberg

1 Traurig ($470 average); Jones Day ($435 average); Kaye Scholer ($597 average);
2 Kelley Drye & Warren ($430 average); Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel ($675
3 average); Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe ($560 average); Paul Hastings ($540
4 average); Paul Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison ($678 average); Skadden, Arps, 5 Slate, Meagher & Flom ($620 average); Stroock, Stroock & Lavan ($549 average); 6 White & Case ($525) average; Willkie Farr & Gallagher ($580 average). California-7 based firms further confirm the reasonableness of DWT's rates for its associates: 8 Quinn Emanuel Urquart & Sullivan ($410 average); Sedgwick ($325 average); and 9 Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton ($415 average). A true and correct copy of the 10 National Law Journals' 2014 Billing Survey is attached as Exhibit 4.

11 16. Based on my experience working in the Los Angeles market for over a 12 decade, DWT's Los Angeles and New York paralegal rates invoiced in this matter, 13 which range from $144 to $153 per hour are also reasonable and consistent with 14 typical rates charged by comparable law firm paralegals in Los Angeles.

15 Analysis of Invoices

16 17. I am familiar with DWT's record keeping and billing system and am 17 aware of the methods by which DWT tracks attorney time, including with respect to 18 this matter. In this action, given the involvement of several plaintiffs, the total 19 invoiced time in this matter has been apportioned by party, with DISH responsible 20 for 40% of billed time, CCTV responsible for 30% of billed time, TVB responsible 21 for 30% of billed time. Each of the Plaintiffs' invoices show daily entries from each 22 timekeeper with descriptions of all of the work performed by each attorney on each 23 day and the increments of total time for the day spent by each attorney on each task 24 for the entire TVpad litigation matter. Each invoice, in turn, apportions the total 25 charged time for each monthly invoice by the 40/30/30 split prior to billing to the 26 individual plaintiff.

27 18. Attached hereto as Exhibit 5 are true and correct copies of excerpts 28 from invoices billed to CCTV from January 31, 2015 through July 20, 2016 with 1 those entries for time billed from December 1, 2014 through July 28, 2016, where 2 such time reflects time associated with tasks relating to Asha Media's liability in this 3 action. I also reviewed DISH and TVB's invoices for this period of time, and those 4 invoices are identical in terms of the time entries; the only difference appears in the 5 final bill amount, which reflects the parties' apportioned amount. To avoid filing 6 identical and unnecessary amounts of paper, only relevant excerpts from CCTV's 7 complete invoices are attached to my declaration, with inapplicable time and 8 confidential or privileged communications redacted.

9 19. The total amount of time spent on specific tasks associated with Asha 10 Media's liability in this action and which are detailed in the invoices attached as 11 Exhibit 5 are totaled in the Excel spreadsheet attached hereto as Exhibit 6, which 12 was prepared under my direction and control.

13 20. I reviewed each of the invoices attached as Exhibit 5. All invoices were 14 generated by the firm's computerized billing program, and the legal services 15 described in the invoices were actually and necessarily performed. As to each 16 invoice, either the fees and costs have been paid or the obligation for payment has 17 been incurred and remains outstanding. In total, the total hours billed to date to 18 Plaintiffs for the prosecution of Asha Media in this action equals 182 total 19 timekeeper hours with billed fees of $82,329.

20 21. In addition, I and my colleagues have spent additional time in August 21 and September that has not yet been billed to Plaintiffs for work associated with 22 preparing this default judgment motion. I have spent approximately 56 hours 23 preparing the Motion for Default Judgment, along with all supporting documentation 24 and declarations. My colleague George Wukoson has spent 12 hours and Robert 25 Balin spent 1.1 hours on the instant motion. In total, pending time incurred for this 26 Motion totals $33,296.

27 ///

22. Plaintiffs therefore request that the Court award total attorneys' fees against Asha Media in the amount of $115,625.

BRAAK DECLARATION

DECLARATION OF NICHOLAS BRAAK

I, Nicholas Braak, declare as follows:

1. I am a licensed private investigator, and have worked as a computer forensics investigator for more than nine years. I am employed by the Mintz Group LLC (“Mintz”), a corporate research and investigations firm based in New York, with offices in Washington D.C., London, Hong Kong, Beijing, Nairobi, and six other cities throughout the world. I have worked for Mintz since January 2014. During my career in information security and digital forensics, I have participated in hundreds of investigations involving intellectual property rights, cybercrime, Internet forensics, and other matters. I make this declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ motion for a preliminary injunction. I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein and, if called upon as a witness, I could and would testify competently about these facts, except for those matters stated expressly upon information and belief, which matters I believe to be true.

Mintz’s Engagement by Plaintiffs

2. Mintz has extensive experience conducting computer and Internet forensics investigations for a wide variety of clients in various types of matters, including intellectual property matters. In 2014, China Central Television (“CCTV”) and China International Communications Co., Ltd. (“CICC”) engaged Mintz to investigate a television set-top box device known as “TVpad” and the unlicensed international television programming accessible to U.S. consumers through the TVpad (the “TVpad Retransmission Service”). In July 2014, TVB Holdings (USA), Inc. (“TVB (USA)”) and DISH Network L.L.C. (“DISH”) joined CICC and CCTV in retaining Mintz for purposes of this investigation. (I will refer to CCTV, CICC, TVB (USA), and DISH collectively as “Plaintiffs”.) Our services have included forensic analysis of the TVpad device and the TVpad Retransmission Service, and investigation into the origin, distribution, and sale into and within the United States of the TVpad.

1 3. I managed the Internet forensic investigation for this matter and 2 conducted research at the direction of Christopher Weil, the lead investigator. I 3 personally have been involved with all of the activities described herein. I have 4 personally viewed and tested, by the means described herein, each TVpad device our 5 investigators purchased in the course of this investigation. I have personally viewed 6 and caused to be recorded streamed content delivered by those devices.

7 4. The TVpad device is manufactured by Defendant Create New 8 Technology (HK) Ltd. (“CNT”). The TVpad delivers television programming to 9 customers through the Internet without customers paying subscription fees to an 10 authorized cable, satellite, or other television services provider. Rather, users 11 purchase the TVpad for a price ranging from $199-$299. Users then connect the 12 TVpad to their broadband Internet service and connect the device to their television 13 with a cable. When the TVpad device is connected to the Internet, software 14 applications or “apps”¹ available through the device’s “TVpad Store” permit users to 15 view streaming² video programs on their televisions. In particular, the TVpad allows 16 viewers to watch television programs that are broadcast in mainland China, Hong 17 Kong, Korea, and other countries in Asia.

18 5. As discussed below, a number of apps available through the TVpad 19 Store allow users in the United States to view Chinese-language television programs 20 broadcast by CCTV in mainland China and broadcast by TVB (USA)’s Hong Kong-21 based parent company Television Broadcasts Limited (“TVB”) in Hong Kong and 22 Taiwan. I am informed by my clients that none of the Plaintiffs authorize any parties

25 _____
26 ¹ An “app” is a small, specialized software program, often downloaded onto a mobile device or computer.

27 ² “Streaming” refers to a method of transmitting or receiving data (especially video 28 and audio material) over a computer network as a steady, continuous flow, allowing playback to proceed while subsequent data is being received.

1 to provide their television programming to consumers in the United States through 2 the TVpad device or TVpad Retransmission Service.

3 6. We forensically tested TVpad devices and TVpad apps to understand the 4 operation of the device, the functioning of TVpad apps, and the source of infringing 5 video streams of TVB and CCTV programming. I personally conducted this forensic 6 examination.

7 Summary of Key Investigative Findings

8 7. The TVpad is a set-top box designed to deliver video content. The 9 TVpad, as distinct from cable television and satellite television boxes, delivers video 10 content over the Internet.

11 8. The TVpad device delivers this content by means of individual apps that 12 users download with one click of their remote control from the “TVpad Store” 13 interface on the TVpad device. Many of TVpad’s most popular and most heavily 14 promoted apps are designed to stream CCTV and TVB copyrighted television 15 programming to users of the TVpad (the “Infringing TVpad Apps”). Through our 16 investigation, we identified a total of 15 of these Infringing TVpad Apps across two 17 models of the TVpad device. The Infringing TVpad Apps stream infringing content 18 to users via four different streaming modes: “live” streaming, “time-shifted” 19 streaming, and two forms of “video-on-demand” streaming.

20 9. The TVpad Store is designed to promote the Infringing TVpad Apps and 21 make them easy to locate and install. CNT appears to exert total control over which 22 apps are featured on the TVpad Store, and appears to control the servers from which 23 apps are downloaded to TVpad devices.

24 10. Our forensic testing of the Infringing TVpad Apps revealed the 25 following:

- 26 a. Live Streaming Apps: Those Infringing TVpad Apps that stream 27 CCTV and TVB television programs “live,” i.e., at the same time 28 they are broadcast in Asia, do so by means of a “peer-to-peer”

1 network, in which TVpad users not only receive the television 2 programs but also simultaneously retransmit those programs to many 3 other TVpad users. These Infringing TVpad Apps also make use of 4 commercial servers to stream live content to TVpad users.

- 5 b. Video-on-Demand Apps: Those Infringing TVpad Apps that make 6 TVB and CCTV programs available in video-on-demand format do 7 so by streaming programs to TVpad users directly from commercial 8 servers in the United States and elsewhere. Our investigation reveals 9 that these servers contain digital copies of the television programs 10 that are streamed to TVpad users.
- 11 c. Time-Shifted Apps: Some of the Infringing TVpad Apps stream 12 CCTV and TVB programs to TVpad users in the United States about 13 12 hours after the programs are first broadcast in Asia. These “time-14 shifted” apps stream programs to TVpad users using both 15 commercial servers as well as a peer-to-peer network in which each 16 TVpad user retransmits programs to many other TVpad users.
- 17 d. Replay Live Apps: Lastly, some of the Infringing TVpad Apps allow 18 TVpad users to select for viewing, through a menu system, specific 19 recorded programming for a specific time frame, such as the past 20 three days. These “replay live” apps function in the same way as the 21 infringing video-on-demand apps: They stream CCTV and TVB 22 programs to TVpad users directly from commercial servers and those 23 servers contain copies of the television programs that are streamed to 24 TVpad users.

25 11. Regardless of the mode it employs (live, video-on-demand, time-shifted, 26 or replay live), each of the Infringing TVpad Apps communicates on a continuous 27 basis with a network of servers set up to ensure constant delivery of video content.
28 We have identified numerous leased commercial servers used to facilitate the 1 activities of the Infringing TVpad Apps. Many of these servers are located in the 2 United States, including in Southern California.

3 General Overview of TVpad Technology and Network

4 12. Before setting forth in detail the results of our forensics review of the 5 TVpad technology, I will briefly describe the general architecture of the TVpad 6 device and network, based on our investigation.

7 The TVpad Device

8 13. The TVpad is an Internet-connected set-top box device with an 9 operating system based on Google's Android mobile operating system, which is used 10 in conjunction with a television or other video monitor. The TVpad is marketed and 11 used to deliver OTT video content. As such, TVpad is similar to Apple TV or the 12 Roku Streaming Player, both of which are set-top boxes that deliver OTT video 13 content. TVpad is different, however, because it delivers OTT video content—14 including CCTV and TVB programs—without the authorization of content owners.
15 The models of the TVpad that are currently being sold are the TVpad3 and TVpad4.
16 A detailed discussion of the TVpad device can be found below at Paragraphs 18 – 36.

17 The TVpad Store

18 14. The TVpad Store is an embedded software application that acts as a user 19 interface for the TVpad device; its primary function is to allow users to select and 20 download apps onto the TVpad. The word "Store" is a misnomer, as all of the 21 Infringing TVpad Apps we have tested are available free of charge. The TVpad Store 22 is organized into categories, with each Infringing TVpad App represented by a 23 graphic icon, allowing users to easily find a specific app they may want to use, and to 24 download and install the app simply by clicking on the icon. When apps are 25 downloaded from the TVpad Store, they then reside on the TVpad device and can be 26 accessed directly by the user by clicking the corresponding icon. A detailed 27 discussion of the TVpad Store, as it appears on the TVpad3 and TVpad4 devices, can 28 be found below at Paragraphs 37 – 50.

The Infringing TVpad Apps

15. For each of the Infringing TVpad Apps that stream CCTV and TVB programs, the user interface on the TVpad resembles an onscreen television program guide. The Infringing TVpad App displays a list of channels or, for video-on-demand, a list of particular programs. A user selects a particular channel or program and the content begins streaming. A detailed discussion of the operation of the Infringing TVpad Apps is found below at Paragraphs 52 – 63.

16. In consultation with CICC, CCTV, and TVB (USA) and through investigators fluent in Mandarin and Cantonese, I have identified the following Infringing TVpad Apps that stream CCTV and TVB programming:

The TVpad Retransmission Service

17. Distribution of video content to TVpad devices in the U.S. takes place through a large network of dedicated computer servers both here and overseas. Some of these servers perform administrative functions, such as authenticating a device as an “official” TVpad when it is first initialized. The same servers also facilitate downloading of the various Infringing TVpad Apps by TVpad users. The same and/or different servers then provide video or other content to those Infringing TVpad Apps, including streaming live video content. Still other servers store digital copies of CCTV and TVB programs for Infringing TVpad Apps that provide video-on-demand playback. Because the Infringing TVpad Apps deliver programming originally broadcast in mainland China and Hong Kong, there also must be computers in or near the broadcast origination points that capture and convert the broadcasts and then deliver them to the servers that relay the programming to TVpad devices. That is, someone is using a video capture device to convert a broadcast signal for each CCTV and TVB channel in China into digital video data that is then placed on an originating computer and streamed through a server network and/or a peer-to-peer network to TVpads in the U.S.—thereby allowing live video content to stream to U.S. TVpad users within moments after it is broadcast in Asia. Attached hereto as Exhibit 45 is a list of leased U.S. commercial servers that I personally observed are involved in the operation of the TVpad Retransmission Service.

Detailed Review of TVpad Operation

18. Based on publicly available information, there have been several “generations” of the TVpad, as described in the accompanying Weil Declaration at Paragraph 17. The TVpad4 (M418) is the current model, and the older TVpad3 (M358) is still being sold by some distributors.

Purchases of the TVpad Device

19. We ordered one TVpad3 device from an Amazon Marketplace seller. As shipped and as shown in the photographs below that I took of the packaging, the TVpad arrived packaged in a white retail box, the underside of which reads “Manufacturer: CREATE NEW TECHNOLOGY (HK) LIMITED,” and contains a serial number and a unique “MAC” address, which is used for locating the TVpad device on a network:

TVpad3 Packaging (Front)

TVpad3 Packaging (Underside)

20. The TVpad package we received contained instruction documents, a TVpad3 set-top box device, a remote control, a USB cord to supply power (along with a USB-to-2 prong AC power plug adapter), an HDMI cable for transmitting video and audio signals to a television, and RCA audio/video cables for transmitting the same. From April 18, 2014 to early December 2014, we performed extensive

1 forensic testing on this device and other TVpad3 devices that Mintz investigators 2 purchased from U.S. TVpad distributors (see Paragraphs 64 – 73 below).

3 21. On December 1, 2014, CNT announced the release of a new model, the 4 TVpad4 (M418).³ Shortly thereafter, we purchased a TVpad4, GCN edition, directly 5 from CNT through its website. Although the packaging of the TVpad4 differed from 6 the TVpad3, the accessories were similar. We undertook forensic testing of the 7 TVpad4 to identify any material technical differences between that device and the 8 TVpad3. Below is a photograph I took of the TVpad4 device that we examined 9 forensically:

20 Forensic Analysis of TVpad Initialization, Authentication, and Operation

21 22. We performed forensics on the TVpad devices using “packet capture” 22 software that monitors data communications to and from a networked device, and 23 documented our work using “video screen capture” software. My descriptions of the

26 ³ After we purchased the TVpad4 device, CNT began advertising two editions of the 27 TVpad4: One that makes available apps that stream Mandarin-language television 28 programming for $199 (the CN edition), and one that makes available apps that stream television programming from Hong Kong, Taiwan, and mainland China for $299 (the GCN edition). See Weil Decl. ¶ 18.

1 TVpad's operation are based on this forensic testing. I personally captured all of the 2 images below of TVpad screen displays. Attached hereto as Exhibit 46 are true and 3 correct, full-sized copies of those screen display images.

4 23. Our testing confirmed that the TVpad4 device and network function 5 similarly to that of the TVpad3, although some of the underlying architecture has 6 changed. In this declaration, references to the TVpad will be to both models, unless 7 otherwise specified.

8 24. Our analysis of the TVpad device revealed that once the TVpad has 9 been connected to the Internet, but before the user performs any actions with the 10 device, the device automatically performs Internet domain name server (DNS) 11 lookups, in order to locate one or more servers with which it needs to communicate 12 in order to properly authenticate itself as a valid TVpad ("DNS Lookup Servers").
13 The device then contacts the identified servers and authenticates itself by sending 14 unique identifying information to that server ("Authentication Servers"). See 15 Exhibit 45 (list of U.S. servers involved in TVpad operations, including the DNS 16 Lookup Servers and Authentication Servers).

17 25. Our forensic analysis demonstrated that the TVpad then automatically 18 downloads operational support content such as the TVpad Store menu of apps and 19 thumbnail graphic images (icons) for those apps, from another set of servers (the 20 "TVpad Store Servers"). See Exhibit 45. The device regularly contacts the TVpad 21 Store Servers to update the contents of the TVpad Store. While the TVpad device is 22 in operation, it also contacts a number of different leased commercial servers for 23 operational assistance and content (the "Operational Servers"). See Exhibit 45.

24 26. When users download Infringing TVpad Apps from the TVpad Store for 25 installation to their TVpad devices, those apps are downloaded from the TVpad Store 26 Servers. During operation of the Infringing TVpad Apps, those Apps download 27 operational content such as program guides and thumbnail graphics from certain of 28 the TVpad Operational Servers.

Initial Onscreen Displays

27. Once the TVpad is connected to a television or other video monitor and turned on, and the above automatic functions occur, a welcome screen appears:

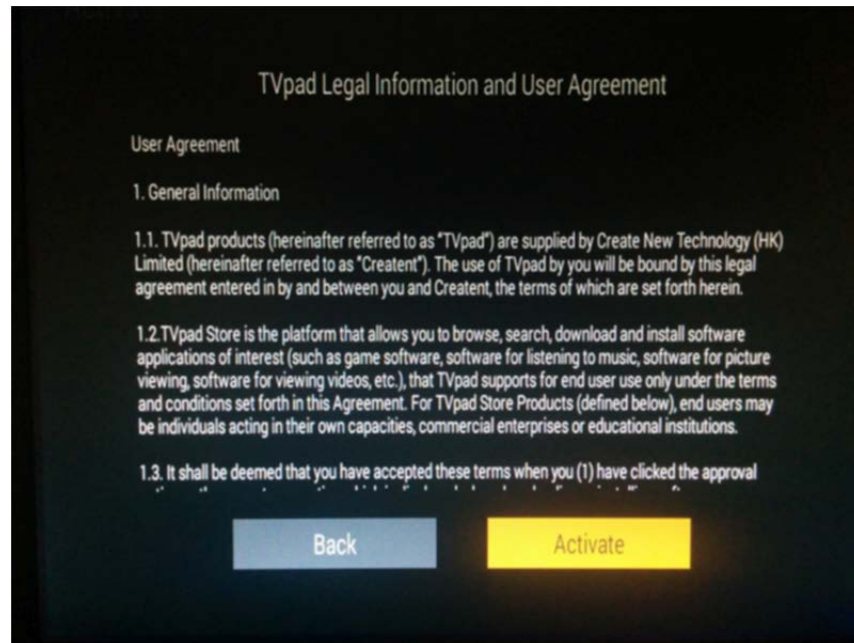

TVpad4 Welcome Screen

28. Next, onscreen prompts appear requiring a user (a) to select the language the device will use for menus and to display text, and (b) to set the time zone:

TVpad4 User Settings Screens

29. After selecting a few additional technical settings, depending on the model, the user is then prompted to read and accept mandatory terms of service (titled "TVpad Legal Information and User Agreement"):

The TVpad4 User Agreement Screen

30. Among other things, the TVpad Legal Information and User Agreement states:

“1.1. TVpad products (hereinafter referred to as “TVpad”) are supplied by Create New Technology (Hong Kong) Limited (hereinafter referred to as “CNT”).

1.2. TVpad Store is the platform that allows you to browse, search, download and install software applications of interest . . . that TVpad supports.

3.1.1. CNT does not recommend software applications other than those provided through the TVpad Store be installed into the TVpad. If user installs any software application not provided through the TVpad Store into the TVpad, the user herein agrees to be responsible and to assume all risks and liabilities resulted from the installation and use of the software application.

3.2. You agree not to access (or try to access) TVpad in any ways other than through the interface provided by CNT, unless otherwise specifically permitted by the separate agreement between you and CNT. You shall agree not to access (or try to access) TVpad in any automatic ways (including script, crawlers or similar techniques), and ensure to comply with instructions (in electronic and/or written form) provided with the TVpad.

3.8. CNT reserves the right to preview, examine, report, filter, modify, refuse or delete any or all software applications in the TVpad Store . . .

3.9. You agree that the TVpad product, the TVpad Store, the Products accessible through the TVpad Store, contain proprietary information and material . . . that is owned by CNT and/or the Publishers of the Products . . .

3.10. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, CNT and the Publishers reserve the right to change, suspend, remove, or disable access to any Products, content, or other materials accessible through the TVpad Store at any time without notice.

7.4. . . . CNT reserves the right to modify, suspend, or discontinue the TVpad Store (or any part or content thereof) at any time with or without notice to you.”

Attached hereto as Exhibit 47 are true and correct photographs of the TVpad Legal Information and User Agreement as displayed on the TVpad3, which I personally captured.

31. After the user accepts the terms of use, on the TVpad4 a series of four promotional screens appear as a slideshow on the device.⁴ The first promotional slide displays several apps with the caption “Watch TV shows, movies, VOD and Live TV whenever you like.”

Promotional Screen No. 1

Notably, this first promotional slide features an icon for what appears to be a version of one of the “Yue Hai” Infringing TVpad Apps.

32. The second promotional slide on the TVpad device promotes “Massive apps for your choice.”

This promotional slide features an icon for a "516" app, one of the Infringing TVpad Apps.

33. On both the TVpad3 and TVpad4, a menu screen for the device appears next; this screen is the device's primary or "home" screen. For the TVpad3, this contains a menu bar on the left side that a user can use to navigate to the "TVpad Store," "My TVpad,"⁵ and "Settings." For the TVpad4, the menu screen has a hidden menu bar on the left with the same three options, and an onscreen button (denoted by a plus symbol) that provides a shortcut to the TVpad Store. The TVpad4 menu screen also includes three promotional banners or advertisements. The TVpad4 menu screen, as of January 13, 2015, included a banner advertisement promoting the Gang Yue Wang Luo Dian Shi Infringing TVpad App, and a banner advertisement promoting the BETV Plus Infringing TVpad App. Attached hereto as Exhibit 48 is a true and correct copy of an image of the TVpad4 menu screen, as of January 13, 2015, displaying these two banners advertisements (along with a third banner advertisement touting the TVpad device itself), which I personally captured, and a certified translation of these two banner advertisements.⁶

⁵ Selecting the "My TVpad" option takes a user to a user account screen.

The TVpad4 Menu Screen

BETV Plus Download Page

⁶ The BETV Plus banner ad contains Chinese language characters that I understand expressly state that the app provides live, VOD and replay live streaming.

35. To reach the TVpad Store, a user can click on the shortcut button on the TVpad4 screen, or use the menu button on the left side of the menu screen on either model of the device:

TVpad4 Menu Screen With Menu Bar Revealed

36. Although the TVpad Store functions similarly on the TVpad3 and the TVpad4, the apps available in the Store, and how the apps are organized, differ. I discuss the organization of the TVpad Store for each model of the device separately, below.

The TVpad Store on the TVpad3 Device

37. On the TVpad3, the left side of the home screen of the TVpad Store displays a menu bar that provides several optional views: “Hot,” a list of popular apps; “App Category,” a list of apps by type (such as “Live TV” and “TV Dramas”); “Search,” a tool to find apps by name; and “App Manager,” a tool to manage installed apps. When the TVpad user accesses the TVpad Store for the first time, the user automatically sees pre-selected app icons labeled “New Apps” and “Hot Apps” on the screen, in two rows on the right side of the screen:

TVpad Store Home Screen (TVpad3)

In the example above from May 13, 2014, the Infringing TVpad Apps BETV II, BETV_HD, and Sport Online were listed as “New Apps.”

38. When I selected “App Category” on the TVpad 3 device, I observed several Infringing TVpad Apps on the right two-thirds of the screen:

TVpad Store with “App Category” Selected (TVpad3)

39. When I selected the “Live TV” category in the TVpad Store on the TVpad3, I observed the following Infringing TVpad Apps: BETV, BETV HD, BETV II, Sport Online, and 516.

TVpad Store with the “Live TV” Category Selected (TVpad3)

40. Similarly, when I selected the “TV Dramas” category in the TVpad Store on the TVpad3, I observed the Gang Tai Wu Xia app, an Infringing TVpad App that streams TVB Kung Fu dramas in video-on-demand mode.

TVpad Store with the “TV Dramas” Category Selected (TVpad3)

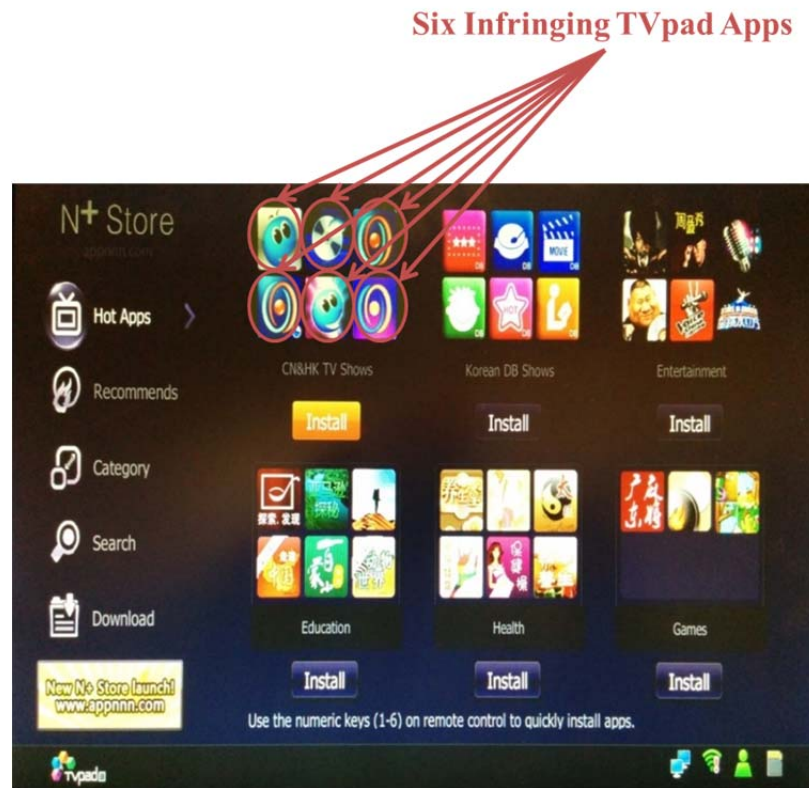

41. By selecting an app from the TVpad Store and then pressing OK on the remote control, a user may download Infringing TVpad Apps free of charge. For example, during our testing of the TVpad3, we downloaded and installed the following Infringing TVpad Apps: BETV, BETVII, BETVHD, 516, and Sport Online, as well as the N+ app, discussed in Paragraphs 44-45 below. Our testing showed that for each app we selected for installation, the app was downloaded from the same TVpad Store Servers from which the TVpad device had automatically downloaded the TVpad Store menu of apps and app icons (see Paragraph 26 above; see also Exhibit 45).

42. Examples of user interfaces of Infringing TVpad Apps appear below:

43. Initiating a download of a particular Infringing TVpad App does not produce onscreen prompts requiring a user to review any terms and conditions for the app itself. We also did not observe and were unable to locate, for any Infringing TVpad App we downloaded, any information provided within the app or anywhere else (including online) that adequately identify the owner, creator, or distributor of such app.

44. One particular app available in the TVpad Store on the TVpad3 model merits further explanation. The app called “N+” is itself another “store” offering multiple infringing apps for free download. The user interface of this “N+ Store” resembles the user interface of the TVpad Store, displaying a menu bar that provides users with several different optional views: “Hot Apps,” a list of popular TVpad Apps available through the N+ app store; “Recommends,” a list of recommended apps; “Search;” and “Download.” The TVpad3 device shows the N+ store on the TVpad user’s television screen, with the default “Hot Apps” category appearing first, as follows:

N+ App Interface on TVpad3

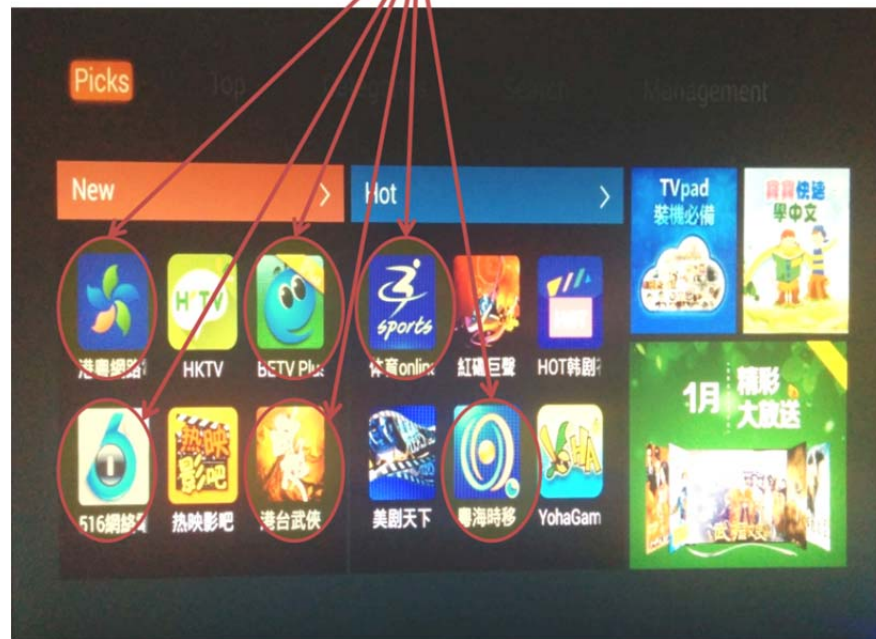

When I opened the N+ Store app on the TVpad3 device, I observed icons for the following Infringing TVpad Apps (as shown in the above image): BETV, Gang Yue Kuai Kan, Yue Hai Kuan Pin, Yue Hai Shi Yi, BETVII, and Yue Hai Kuan Pin 2.

45. A user may download individual TVpad apps or entire TVpad app collections using the N+ Store. Notably, the Hot Apps option on the N+ store includes a collection of Infringing TVpad Apps titled “CN&HK TV Shows”, which I interpreted to mean “Chinese and Hong Kong TV Shows”. During our testing, we downloaded the “CN&HK TV Shows” collection from the N+ Store, which resulted in installation on the TVpad3 device of the following Infringing TVpad Apps: BETV, BETVII, Yue Hai Kuan Pin 23, Yue Hai Shi Yi 3, Yue Hai Kuan Pin 3, and Gang Yue Kuai Kan.

The TVpad Store on the TVpad4 Device

46. The home screen on the TVpad4 has a menu bar at the top of the screen that contains the following options: “Picks”, “Top”, “Categories”, “Search”, and “Management.” The selected option is highlighted, and the others are dimmed.

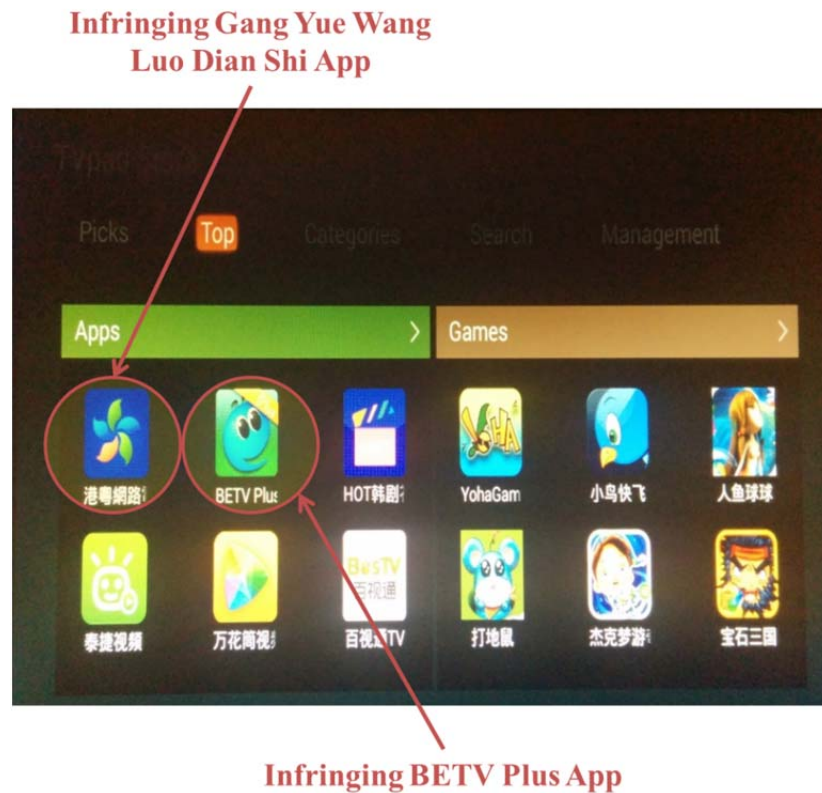

Six Infringing TVpad Apps

Home Screen of TVpad Store on TVpad4 (“Picks” Selected)

The home screen of the TVpad4 defaults to the “Picks” option, and this screen automatically shows icons under “New” and “Hot” categories of apps, just as on the home screen of the TVpad Store on the TVpad3 but arranged in blocks of six icons. When I opened the home screen on the TVpad4, I observed the following six Infringing TVpad Apps (shown in the image above): Gang Yue Wang Luo Dian Shi, BETV Plus, 516 Online TV, Sports Online, Gang Tai Wu Xia, and Yue Hai Shi Yi.

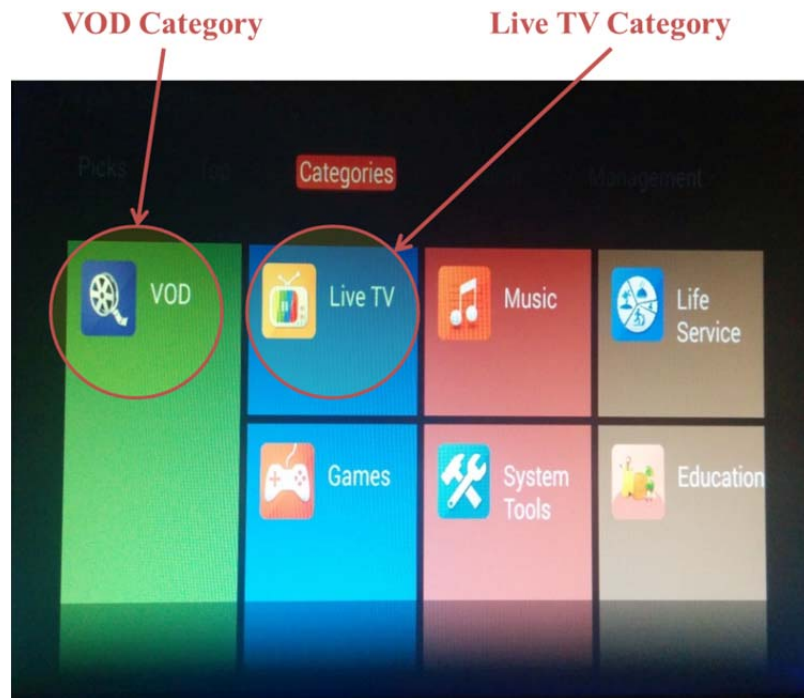

47. Selecting the “Top” option yields another screen with what appear to be curated app selections, divided into “Apps” and “Games”:

“Top” Screen on TVpad Store (TVpad4)

The above image shows two Infringing TVpad Apps under the “Apps” category: Gang Yue Wang Luo Dian Shi and BETV Plus.

48. Selecting the “Categories” option yields a screen with seven app categories, including “VOD” and “Live TV”:

“Categories” Screen on TVpad Store (TVpad4)

Clicking on a particular category takes a user to a screen or series of screens displaying multiple apps for the selected category.

49. When I viewed the first screen of the VOD category, I observed three Infringing TVpad Apps (shown in the image below): the Gang Yue Wang Luo Dian Shi, BETV Plus, and Gang Tai Wu Xia apps.

First Screen in “VOD” Category in TVpad Store (TVpad4)

50. Similarly, when I selected the “Live TV” category in the TVpad Store on the TVpad4, I observed three Infringing TVpad Apps on the first screen:

First Screen in “Live TV” Category in TVpad Store (TVpad4)

The Infringing TVpad Apps that appear on this screen are the 516 Online TV, Sports Online, and Yue Hai Shi Yi apps.

No Procedures for Reporting Infringement

51. On both the TVpad3 and TVpad4, the TVpad Store has no posted policy or statement instructing users how to report activity that they believe infringes copyrights. Nor are there any informal procedures or mechanisms (such as a “Report This App” button) that would enable users of the TVpad device to report activity that they believe infringes copyrights. Based on information available on the United States Copyright Office’s website, I have determined that CNT has not appointed an agent to receive notifications of claimed copyright infringement relating to the TVpad Store.

Methods by Which Infringing TVpad Apps Stream CCTV and TVB Programs

52. My forensics investigation showed that Infringing TVpad Apps stream CCTV and TVB programming through four modes familiar to users of contemporary cable and satellite television set-top boxes. As noted above, these modes deliver:

- live television programming as it is broadcast, subject to minor delay due to the video capture and streaming process (“Live TV Mode”);
- time-delayed live television programming, such that programming is streamed around the same time of day in the U.S. as it originally aired in China, depending on respective time zones (“Time-Shifted Mode”);
- specific recorded programming chosen through a menu system, often known as video-on-demand (“VOD Mode”); and
- specific recorded programming chosen through a menu system for a specific time frame, such as the last three days (“Replay Live Mode”).

TVpad Live Television Mode: Peer-to-Peer Streaming

53. The live television video data streamed through Infringing TVpad Apps in Live TV Mode is delivered to TVpad users through a peer-to-peer network. In Live TV Mode, each TVpad user connects to a group of many other TVpad users, and receives data from those peers that is assembled to view video. That TVpad user, in turn, transmits data out to numerous other TVpad users to perpetuate the peer-to-peer network. In other words, TVpad users who use Infringing TVpad Apps to watch live CCTV and TVB programming not only receive that programming, but also simultaneously retransmit that programming to large numbers of other TVpad users in the United States and elsewhere.

54. Our investigation showed that, in addition to transmitting and receiving content from other TVpads, Infringing TVpad Apps in Live TV Mode also connect to a set of leased commercial servers that the apps treat as peers (“Live TV Servers”).

1 These Live TV Servers also stream content to the TVpad devices, presumably to add 2 stability to the peer-to-peer network, especially when few TVpad peers are online. A 3 number of these Live TV Servers are located in the United States, including Los 4 Angeles, California. See Exhibit 45 (list of U.S. servers).

5 55. In the case of the TVpad4, when operating in Live TV Mode, each 6 TVpad “peer” communicates with an unknown central server on the public Internet 7 that learns and manages the peers’ IP addresses and methods needed for the peers to 8 find each other and to act as upload points. In the case of the TVpad3, Infringing 9 TVpad Apps in Live TV Mode retrieve an encrypted file (from a server on the 10 SopCast P2P network at sopserv.com), readable only by TVpad Live TV apps, that 11 provides locations in the peer-to-peer network so that the Live TV Apps can establish 12 connections to peers.

13 56. Although the peer-to-peer network utilized by the Infringing TVpad 14 Apps in Live TV Mode exists on the “open” Internet, these Apps make use of a 15 private network of TVpad device peers, each of which must be authenticated by 16 central servers in order to operate on the network (the “TVpad Peer-to-Peer 17 Network”). Also, the video streams themselves used by the TVpad Peer-to-Peer 18 Network are encoded at the upstream end (in Hong Kong or mainland China), and 19 then decoded by the Infringing TVpad Apps on the TVpad devices downstream, 20 which means that the party who encodes the stream must provide the decoding key to 21 the party controlling the Infringing TVpad App in order for TVpad devices to view 22 the content, thus keeping the entire process private. By analogy, the public Internet is 23 like a neighborhood, and the TVpad Peer-to-Peer Network is like an adjacent gated 24 community, to which only TVpad apps have access.

25 57. While starting up and throughout the playback of live content, 26 Infringing TVpad Apps in Live TV Mode connect to one or more of the TVpad 27 Operational Servers to download content such as program guides for use with those 28 apps. See Exhibit 45 (list of U.S. servers).

58. Our review of Internet discussion board posts shows that some TVpad users are aware that Infringing TVpad Apps in Live TV Mode receive and upload streamed video content through a peer-to-peer network. True and correct copies of printouts of such Internet discussion board posts are attached hereto as Exhibit 49, which printouts I personally confirmed accurately reflect the contents of those Internet discussion board posts on February 5, 2015. Other TVpad users are aware that watching television programming through the TVpad device uses a significant amount of the upload capacity or bandwidth of the user's Internet connection. Attached hereto as Exhibit 50 are true and correct copies of printouts of two Internet discussion board posts and one blog post, in which users discuss the TVpad device's consumption of upload bandwidth, which printouts I personally confirmed accurately reflect the contents of those posts on February 19, 2015.

59. TVpad users also complain generally about the quality of the TVpad viewing experience, including complaints regarding slow downloads, failed downloads, unavailable channels, unavailable programs, low video quality, and poor sound quality. Attached hereto as Exhibit 51 are true and correct copies of examples of such Internet discussion board posts, which printouts I personally confirmed (with the assistance of a Mintz investigator fluent in Chinese) accurately reflect the contents of those Internet discussion board posts on February 5, 2015, and certified translations of those posts. During our investigation, I personally observed numerous problems with the TVpad viewing experience, such as video failing to stream or download, video freezing while playing, video terminating in the middle of a program, low video quality, blurring of video, pixelation, and soundtrack out of sync with video.

TVpad VOD and Replay Live Modes: Direct Streaming

60. Our investigation has demonstrated that Infringing TVpad Apps in VOD Mode and Replay Live Mode function in the same manner as one another, though they access different servers.

61. Infringing TVpad Apps in VOD Mode and Replay Live Modes allow the user to select an available television program (such as a specific episode from a CCTV or TVB television series) to view “on demand”—that is, commencing from the beginning of the program and playing the program whenever the user chooses. Infringing TVpad Apps in VOD Mode and Replay Live Mode receive video streams from servers in the U.S., including in Los Angeles, California (“VOD Servers” and “Replay Live Servers”, respectively). See Exhibit 45 (list of U.S. servers).

62. We have determined through forensic analysis that Infringing TVpad Apps in VOD Mode and Replay Live Mode specifically request video files from the above (and other) servers, indicating that such video files reside on those servers. Further, the Infringing TVpad Apps in VOD Mode and Replay Live Mode receive data packets from these servers that are of a size indicating they contain recorded video data. The Infringing TVpad Apps also establish connections and begin streaming sufficiently quickly, as compared with live streaming mode, to indicate that the TVpad VOD and Replay Live Servers store copies of CCTV and TVB programs.

TVpad Time-Shifted Mode: Peer-to-Peer and Direct Streaming

63. Sometimes Infringing TVpad Apps in Time-Shifted Mode stream video content by means of a combination of peer-to-peer streaming (through the TVpad Peer-to-Peer Network) and direct streaming, while at other times, they stream video content exclusively through direct streaming from servers. Time-Shifted direct streams of television programming appear to originate with servers in China and in California.

Analysis of TVpad Devices Purchased from U.S. Distributors

64. We also examined TVpad3 devices purchased from certain U.S. Distributors by my colleague Shuk Kuen “Lily” Lau. The purchases of these devices are described in the accompanying Declaration of Ms. Lau.

ClubTVpad

65. One of the TVpad3 devices I examined was purchased from Defendant Club TVpad, Inc. (“Club TVpad”). Shipping materials accompanying the package indicated that the TVpad device was shipped from 4101 Dublin Blvd Suite F, PMB#18, Dublin, CA 94568 on October 31, 2014. Attached hereto as Exhibit 52 is a true and correct copy of a photograph I took of the shipping materials that accompanied the TVpad device Ms. Lau purchased from Club TVpad, with the street address and contact information Mintz uses in investigations redacted because the redacted information reflects confidential and proprietary business information.

66. The TVpad device Ms. Lau purchased from Club TVpad appears to have been configured by Club TVpad before it was shipped to her. When I connected the TVpad device to the Internet and turned it on, instead of displaying the user agreement and the new user questions, the TVpad device had been set up with the following Infringing TVpad Apps already pre-installed: the Gang Yue Wang Luo Dian Shi app, three BETV apps, the HITV app, the Sport online app, three Yue Hai apps, and the Gang Yue Kuai Kan app. Even had these Infringing TVpad Apps not been pre-installed by Club TVpad, I could have downloaded the Infringing TVpad Apps through the TVpad Store; but Club TVpad facilitated this process by already downloading the infringing TVpad Apps prior to shipping the TVpad device to Ms. Lau.

67. Using the Infringing TVpad Apps that Club TVpad had pre-installed on that device, I viewed CCTV and TVB television programs on the TVpad device we received from Club TVpad.

Asha Media

68. I examined two TVpad3 devices Ms. Lau purchased through the TVpad.com website. As set forth in the accompanying Lau Declaration, which I have reviewed, Ms. Lau has determined that the TVpad.com website is operated by Defendant Asha Media Group Inc. (“Asha Media”). For the first device received

1 from TVpad.com, which arrived on June 9, 2014, the shipping materials 2 accompanying the package indicated that the TVpad had been shipped from 3 “TVPAD.COM” at 1409 South Lilac Avenue, Bloomington, California 92316 on 4 June 3, 2014. Attached hereto as Exhibit 53 are true and correct copies of 5 photographs I took of the shipping materials that accompanied the first TVpad3 6 device Ms. Lau purchased from TVpad.com, with the street address Mintz uses in 7 investigations redacted because the redacted information reflects confidential and 8 proprietary business information.

9 69. The shipping materials accompanying this TVpad included a sealed 10 padded envelope containing a postcard offering a $20 discount on future purchases 11 from the TVpad.com website and a USB flash drive. The USB flash drive contained 12 Infringing TVpad Apps and software used by the TVpad device to help load these 13 applications onto the TVpad device. The Infringing TVpad Apps on the USB flash 14 drive included: a 516 app, three BETV apps, the Sport Online app, the Gang Yue 15 Kuai Kan app, and three Yue Hai apps. Attached hereto as Exhibit 54 are true and 16 correct copies of photographs I took of the envelope contents and a screenshot of the 17 file contents of the USB flash drive.

18 70. Based on Mintz’s other purchases of TVpad devices, the flash drive 19 shipped by TVpad.com along with the device is not part of the TVpad device as 20 shipped from the manufacturer. The flash drive is not necessary to load these 21 Infringing TVpad Apps onto the TVpad because all of these Infringing TVpad Apps 22 are available for download through the TVpad Store; but TVpad.com facilitated this 23 process by providing a flash drive that contained Infringing TVpad Apps.

24 71. Using the Infringing TVpad Apps TVpad.com supplied on the flash 25 drive, I viewed CCTV and TVB television programs on the first TVpad device we 26 received from TVpad.com.

27 72. In October 2014, I examined a second TVpad3 device Ms. Lau 28 purchased from TVpad.com, which was shipped from the same Bloomington,

1 California address as the first device. Attached hereto as Exhibit 55 are true and 2 correct copies of photographs I took of the shipping materials accompanying the 3 second TVpad device Ms. Lau purchased from TVpad.com, with the street address 4 Mintz uses in investigations redacted because the redacted information reflects 5 confidential and proprietary business information. The shipping materials for this 6 TVpad device again included a sealed padded envelope containing a postcard 7 offering a $20 discount and a USB flash drive containing the same Infringing TVpad 8 Apps and software as provided with the first TVpad device, along with several 9 additional apps. Attached hereto as Exhibit 56 are true and correct copies of a 10 photograph of the envelope contents and a screenshot of the file contents of the USB 11 flash drive.

12 73. Using the Infringing TVpad Apps TVpad.com supplied on the flash 13 drive, I viewed CCTV and TVB television programs on the second TVpad device we 14 received from TVpad.com.

15 Recording of Infringing TVpad Apps Streaming CCTV and TVB Programs

16 74. To memorialize examples of infringement of CCTV and TVB programs, 17 Mintz recorded video of CCTV and TVB programs being streamed through various 18 Infringing TVpad Apps operating on the TVpad device in multiple modes. I made 19 these recordings using a digital recording device on the same local network as the 20 TVpad, which received an exact copy of the streaming content being received by the 21 TVpad, and displayed the content simultaneously on a video monitor also set up in 22 the room. I was present during each recording and viewed these broadcasts being 23 played on the television monitor.

24 75. Specifically, the details regarding these recordings—including program 25 name, number of airings recorded, air date, CCTV or TVB channel, Infringing 26 TVpad App used, and app mode used—are as follows:

LAU DECLARATION

DECLARATION OF SHUK KUEN “LILY” LAU

I, Shuk Kuen “Lily” Lau, declare as follows:

1. I am a licensed private investigator with the Mintz Group LLC (“Mintz”), a corporate research and investigations firm headquartered in New York. For more than 20 years, I have worked as a legal translator—working with (among others) the Manhattan District Attorney’s office, the office of the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, and various federal agencies (including U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, the Drug Enforcement Administration, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation) on a variety of matters, including Chinese organized-crime investigations and prosecutions. I am fluent in and a court certified translator of the Mandarin, Cantonese, and Fujianese dialects. I make this declaration in support of the motion of plaintiffs China Central Television (“CCTV”), China International Communications Co., Ltd (“CCIC”), TVB Holdings (USA), Inc. (“TVB (USA)”), and DISH Network L.L.C. (“DISH” and collectively with CCTV, CICC, and TVB (USA), “Plaintiffs”) for a preliminary injunction. I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein and, if called upon as a witness, I could and would testify competently about these facts, except for those matters stated expressly upon information and belief, which matters I believe to be true.

2. In 2014, Plaintiffs engaged Mintz to investigate a television set-top box device known as “TVpad” and the unlicensed international television programming accessible to U.S. consumers through the TVpad device. Under the direction of lead Mintz investigator Christopher Weil, I was charged with investigating the distribution and sale of the TVpad device into and within the United States. Among other things, I and other investigators under the direction and control of Mr. Weil researched the activities of two companies that distribute the TVpad device in the United States: Defendants Club TVpad, Inc. (“Club TVpad”) and Asha Media Group Inc. d/b/a TVpad.com (“Asha Media”).

Club TVpad

3. As part of my investigation of Club TVpad, I reviewed the company's website and other publicly available materials compiled by Mintz investigators regarding its location, ownership, and activities as a distributor of TVpad devices. Mintz investigators under the direction and control of my supervisor Christopher Weil also reviewed Club TVpad's website and Facebook page to determine the extent to which Club TVpad advertises, promotes, and encourages the use of TVpad applications or "apps" that illegally stream the television programming of CCTV and TVB (USA)'s Hong Kong-based parent company Television Broadcasts Limited ("TVB") to TVpad users in the United States. (I shall refer to these apps collectively as the "Infringing TVpad Apps".) Finally, I purchased a TVpad device from Club TVpad and engaged in communications with Club TVpad personnel regarding the TVpad device. The results of my investigation are set forth in detail below.

4. Club TVpad is a California corporation. The "Business Entity Detail" page on the California Secretary of State's website identifies Bennett Wong as Club TVpad's agent for service of process and lists 3240 Shawn Way in Hayward, California as Club TVpad's business address. Attached hereto as Exhibit 57 is a true and correct copy of a printout of the Business Entity Detail webpage for Club TVpad from <http://kepler.sos.ca.gov/>, which printout I personally confirmed accurately reflects the contents of that webpage on February 5, 2015.

5. Club TVpad operates a website at the domain name clubtvpad.com. According to archived domain registration records, as of July 2012, the registrant of the domain for Club TVpad's website was Bennett Wong, 225 W. Santa Clara Street, Suite 600, in San Jose, California. By September 2012, the domain registration had been transferred to a third-party domain-name privacy service named Domains by Proxy, which is the current registrant, according to archived domain registration records. Attached hereto as Exhibit 58 is a true and correct copy of a DomainTools domain report for clubtvpad.com, which includes archived domain registration

1 records. DomainTools is a website that provides publicly-available information 2 regarding current and past domain name registrants, sometimes referred to as 3 WHOIS registration information. One obtains records from DomainTools by 4 searching for a given domain name at domaintools.com and selecting the type of 5 records one wishes to view. I personally confirmed on February 5, 2015 that Exhibit 6 58 reflects the live domain registration records for clubtvpad.com on 7 DomainTools.com.

8 6. Club TVpad is listed as an authorized U.S. distributor of the TVpad 9 device on itvpad.com, the website operated by the manufacturer of the TVpad device, 10 Create New Technology (HK) Ltd. (“CNT”). Attached hereto as Exhibit 59 is a true 11 and correct copy of a printout of the webpage at 12 <http://www.itvpad.com/serviceNetwork.html>, which printout I personally confirmed 13 accurately reflects the contents of that webpage on February 5, 2015, and a certified 14 translation of that printout.

15 7. Club TVpad operates a Facebook page at https://www.facebook.com 16 /pages/ToyzMore4u-Club-TVpad/212039942176662. Club TVpad advertises and 17 promotes the TVpad device on this Facebook page. Attached hereto as Exhibit 60 18 are true and correct copies of the Timeline and About Us webpages from Club 19 TVpad’s Facebook page, which printouts I personally confirmed accurately reflect 20 the contents of those webpages on February 5, 2015.

21 8. A June 25, 2012 post on Club TVpad’s Facebook Page includes an 22 image of a “Regional Reseller Authorization” certificate from CNT for Club TVpad.
23 Attached hereto as Exhibit 61 is a true and correct copy of a printout of the January 24 25, 2012 Club TVpad Facebook posting, which printout I personally confirmed 25 accurately reflects the contents of that Facebook posting on February 5, 2015

26 9. Club TVpad advertises and offers TVpad devices for sale to consumers 27 through its website, including to consumers in the United States, the State of 28 California, and the Los Angeles area. Club TVpad sells the TVpad3 device on its

1 website for $249.99. Attached hereto as Exhibit 62 is a true and correct copy of a 2 printout of the product webpage for the TVpad3 device at 3 <http://clubtvpad.com/main/shop/tvpad3-m58/>, which I personally confirmed 4 accurately reflects the contents of that webpage on February 5, 2015.

5 10. On both its website and its Facebook page, Club TVpad promotes the 6 Infringing TVpad Apps and the availability on the TVpad device of CCTV and TVB 7 television programming streamed from Asia at no charge to consumers, as detailed 8 below:

9 a. Club TVpad states on its homepage that TVpad users may 10 “Access tons of content with no monthly charge! It’s a set top box (IPTV) that lets 11 you access Chinese, Vietnamese and Korean TV and movies with no additional 12 charge!!” Attached hereto as Exhibit 63 is a true and correct copy of a screenshot of 13 the webpage at <http://clubtvpad.com/main/>, which screenshot I personally confirmed 14 accurately reflects the contents of that webpage on February 5, 2015.

15 b. In an April 26, 2013 post on Club TVpad’s Facebook page, a 16 Club TVpad administrator stated: “For those who want to use TVpad to watch the 17 NBA Playoffs. Here is CCTV5 schedule.” When a user then asked which TVpad 18 app to use to watch CCTV5, a Club TVpad Administrator stated “BETV or BETV 19 HD.” As a result of our investigation, Mintz has determined that the BETV and 20 BETV HD apps are Infringing TVpad Apps that stream CCTV television 21 programming. Attached hereto as Exhibit 64 is a true and correct copy of a printout 22 of the April 26, 2013 Club TVpad Facebook post, which printout I personally 23 confirmed accurately reflects the contents of that Facebook post on February 5, 2015.

24 c. In a June 5, 2013 post on Club TVpad’s Facebook page, a Club 25 TVpad administrator posted a picture of the icon for the BETV II app and stated: 26 “Here’s the icon to look for when searching for the BETV2.” As a result of our 27 investigation, Mintz has determined that the BETV II app is an Infringing TVpad 28 App that streams CCTV television programming. Attached hereto as Exhibit 65 is a

1 true and correct copy of a printout of the June 5, 2013 Club TVpad Facebook post, 2 which printout I personally confirmed accurately reflects the contents of that 3 Facebook post on February 5, 2015.

4 d. In a November 12, 2012 post on Club TVpad's Facebook page, 5 Club TVpad posted the following message: "Are you a Direct TV subscriber? Then 6 you might be aware that they are removing TVB from their line up at the end of the 7 month. Meaning Direct TV subscribers will no longer receive TVB channels with 8 Direct TV. This is the best time to get a TVpad to replace Direct TV." In the 9 responses to that post, a user asked whether TVpad users will get in "trouble" for 10 using the TVpad device, and a Club TVpad administrator assured the user to the 11 contrary, pointing to the many people using torrents to download movies for free.
12 Attached hereto as Exhibit 66 is a true and correct copy of a printout of these 13 November 12, 2012 Club TVpad Facebook posts, which printout I personally 14 confirmed accurately reflects the contents of those Facebook posts on February 5, 15 2015.

16 11. The homepage of Club TVpad's website contains a graphic of the 17 TVpad's interface that displays icons for seven Infringing TVPad Apps, specifically 18 the Gang Yue Kuai Kan app, Yue Hai Shi Yi app, Yue Hai Kuan Pin app, 516 Online
19 TV app, BETV app, HITV app and Sport Online app. A screenshot of this graphic 20 on Club TVpad's homepage follows:

1 Attached hereto as Exhibit 67 is a true and correct screenshot of the webpage
2 containing this graphic at <http://clubtvpad.com/main/>, which printout I personally 3 confirmed accurately reflects the contents of that webpage on February 5, 2015.

4 12. Club TVpad's website also includes a discussion board (or "forum")
5 section, in which TVpad users solicit advice from Club TVpad on how to view 6 CCTV and TVB television programming using the Infringing TVpad Apps. A Club 7 TVpad site administrator under the screen name "clubtvpad" provides that advice.
8 For example, an exchange of posts on the discussion board section of the Club 9 TVpad website beginning on July 8, 2014 included the following statements:

10 DarkKnight22: "The TVB drama app does not load at all. It 11 is the one with the disc Icon...."

12 Clubtvpad: "Sounds like you are not running the latest 13 version of the app. Go to the app manager and see if there 14 is an update. Also check to make sure one on [sic] the 15 latest firmware. All VOD and live TV is working on 16 Tvpad."

17 Our investigation also located numerous exchanges where Club TVpad 18 administrators promoted the Infringing TVpad Apps and/or the availability of CCTV 19 and TVB programming on the TVpad device, including the TVB series "Divas in 20 Distress" and the NBA Playoffs on CCTV5. Attached hereto as Exhibit 68 are true 21 and correct copies of printouts of the July 2014 forum thread and of other 22 representative forum threads from the Club TVpad forum at 23 <http://clubtvpad.com/main/forums/>, which printouts I personally confirmed 24 accurately reflect the contents of those forum threads on February 5, 2015, and 25 certified translations of selected portions of those printouts.

26 13. In numerous other threads on Club TVpad's forum, Club TVpad 27 administrators provide technical assistance to TVpad users to help them access 28 infringing content, including CCTV and/or TVB programming. Attached hereto as

1 Exhibit 69 are true and correct copies of printouts of representative forum threads 2 from the Club TVpad forum at <http://clubtvpad.com/main/forums/>, which printouts I 3 personally confirmed accurately reflect the contents of those forum threads on 4 February 5, 2015.

5 14. Several other threads on Club TVpad's forum involving Club TVpad 6 administrators and moderators demonstrate knowledge by Club TVpad and its 7 customers that the TVpad makes use of a peer-to-peer network to provide streaming 8 video content. Attached hereto as Exhibit 70 are true and correct copies of printouts 9 of representative forum threads from the Club TVpad forum at 10 <http://clubtvpad.com/main/forums/>, which printouts I personally confirmed 11 accurately reflect the contents of those forum threads on February 5, 2015.

12 15. An entire section of the Club TVpad forum is dedicated to "TVB Drama 13 Discussion." Attached hereto as Exhibit 71 are true and correct copies of printouts of 14 webpages from the Club TVpad forum showing the "TVB Drama Discussion" 15 section, which printouts I personally confirmed accurately reflect the contents of 16 those webpages on February 5, 2015.

17 16. Club TVpad also provides customer support and assistance on its 18 Facebook page to help its customers access infringing television programming. For 19 example, on December 16, 2014, a TVpad user in Arcadia, California stated that he 20 had not been able to watch TVB drama series for two days. An administrator asked 21 the user "on what platform" the user was attempting to watch the TVB drama series, 22 and the user identified the Infringing TVpad App Gang Yue Kuai Kan in Chinese.
23 An administrator then responded "They tend to be a bit slow in updating content 24 during the holidays. Just have to wait." Attached hereto as Exhibit 72 is a true and 25 correct copy of a printout of the Facebook post at 26 https://www.facebook.com/permalink.php?story_fbid=

28 accurately reflects the contents of that Facebook post on February 5, 2015.

1 17. On October 26, 2014, I called Club TVpad at the Oakland, California-2 area telephone number Bennett Wong used to register the domain name 3 clubtvpad.com. An individual identifying himself as Bennett Wong answered the 4 phone. During our phone conversation, Mr. Wong stated that there is no monthly 5 charge to access Chinese television programming on the TVpad. He explained that 6 the one-time, up-front purchase price of the TVpad device is the only cost to access 7 television programming, which is part of what makes the TVpad device so popular.
8 He stated that the TVpad device is similar to a Roku set-top box but with more Asian 9 television stations and indicated that the television channels available on the TVpad 10 device include TVB's TVBS and Jade channels. He instructed me about how to 11 connect the TVpad device to the Internet, about how to open the TVpad Store on the 12 TVpad device, and about how to download apps that provide access to television 13 programming. Mr. Wong also provided me with a discount coupon code to decrease 14 the cost of the TVpad device to $220.

15 18. On October 26, 2014, I purchased a TVpad device from Club TVpad on 16 its clubtvpad.com website for a total cost of $238.71. On October 26, 2014, I 17 personally received an email confirming my purchase from orders@clubtvpad.com.
18 A true and correct copy of that confirmation email is attached hereto as Exhibit 73, 19 with the street address and telephone number Mintz used for this investigation 20 redacted because the redacted information reflects confidential and proprietary 21 business information. On November 3, 2014, a package addressed to me containing 22 the TVpad device was received at a Mintz address in West Hills, California, and was 23 forwarded to my colleague Nicholas Braak in New York for review.

24 19. Subsequently, Mr. Braak informed me that several Infringing TVpad 25 Apps were pre-installed on the TVpad device I purchased from Club TVpad, as set 26 forth in the accompanying Braak Declaration, which I have reviewed.

27 20. On November 20, 2014, I called Club TVpad and again spoke with the 28 individual identifying himself as Bennett Wong. During our conversation, Mr. Wong

1 stated that he had directed his staff to install several apps because I had stated in our 2 previous phone conversation that I wanted to watch television programs from Hong 3 Kong. Mr. Wong instructed me to use the Infringing TVpad App Gang Hai Kuai 4 Kan and stated that it would provide Hong Kong television series going back three 5 years, including drama series and movies on demand. With respect to live 6 programming, Mr. Wong advised me that I could use the Infringing TVpad App Yue 7 Hai Kuan Pin to view live television channels from Hong Kong, including TVB 8 channels, and that the Infringing TVpad App Yue Hai Kuan Pin 2 would provide live 9 and pre-recorded programs going back three days, including on TVB's Jade channel.
10 Mr. Wong stated that, based on feedback from other customers, he had instructed his 11 staff to install the most popular TVpad apps at the top of the TVpad Store and less

13 Asha Media

14 21. I also investigated Asha Media, another U.S. distributor of TVpad 15 devices. During my investigation, I reviewed publicly available materials to 16 determine Asha Media's location, ownership, and its activities as a distributor of 17 TVpad devices. I also reviewed the website at <http://www.tvpad.com/en/> 18 ("TVpad.com"), which, based on Mintz's investigation, we have concluded is 19 operated by Asha Media. I also called Asha Media and spoke with Asha Media 20 personnel directly. Finally, I purchased two TVpad devices from TVpad.com and 21 engaged in communications with TVpad.com personnel regarding the devices. The 22 results of my investigation are set forth in detail below.

23 22. Asha Media is a Florida corporation with a registered business address 24 in Green Cove Springs, Florida. According to records on file with the Florida 25 Secretary of State, Amit Bhalla is the President of Asha Media, and Rena Mehta is 26 Asha Media's registered agent for service of process. Attached hereto as Exhibit 74 27 are true and correct copies of records on file with the Florida Secretary of State 28 pertaining to Asha Media, printed from the Florida Secretary of State's website,

1 which printed copies I personally confirmed accurately reflect live records on the 2 Florida Secretary of State's website on February 10, 2015.

3 23. Based on Mintz's investigation, we have concluded that Asha Media 4 operates the TVpad.com website. This conclusion is based on the following facts:

5 a. A Mintz investigator under my supervisor Christopher Weil's 6 direction and control used the Wayback Machine website from the Internet 7 Archive—a non-profit organization that archives historical copies of other websites, 8 identified by web address and date—to access archived historical copies of the 9 TVpad.com website. According to these historical copies of TVpad.com for 10 February 9, 2014 and October 20, 2013, the "About Us" webpage on TVpad.com 11 stated:

12 TVPad Store is owned and managed by Asha Media Group Inc., a 13 Florida, U.S based company. Our management and customer service 14 departments are located in U.S, while the factory and shipping units are 15 in China.

16 Attached hereto as Exhibit 75 are true and correct copies of printouts of these 17 archived historical copies of the above-quoted webpage from the Wayback Machine 18 at <https://web.archive.org/web/20140209102717/http://www.tvpad.com/en/about-us> 19 and https://web.archive.org/web/20131020050516/http://www.tvpad.com/en/about- 20 us, which printouts I personally confirmed on February 5, 2015 accurately reflect the 21 contents of those archived historical copies.

22 b. Mintz investigators located a profile webpage for Amit Bhalla 23 (screen name AmBhalla) on the website Brownbook.net, an online business 24 directory. That profile states that Amit Bhalla operates the "TVpad Store" and lists 25 an email address of sales@tvpad.com. Another webpage on Brownbook.net 26 identifies the "TVpad Store" as www.tvpad.com. Attached hereto as Exhibit 76 are 27 true and correct copies of printouts of the above-mentioned webpages on 28

1 Brownbook.net, which printouts I personally confirmed accurately reflect the 2 contents of those webpages on February 5, 2015.

3 c. Mintz investigators also located a profile webpage for Amit
4 Bhalla on the website Mylot.com, which is a discussion board and blogging 5 community. The profile states that Amit Bhalla is “[a]n entrepreneur in the TVpad 6 business, enabling people to watch Chinese, Japanese, and Korean TV from 7 anywhere in the world” and lists Amit Bhalla’s website as www.tvpad.com/.
8 Attached hereto as Exhibit 77 is a true and correct copy of a printout from the 9 webpage at <http://www.mylot.com/abhalla>, which printout I personally confirmed 10 accurately reflects the contents of that webpage on February 5, 2015.

11 d. Mintz investigators also located a post on cloudytags.com, an 12 “adult social bookmarking” website. A user going by the name “abhalla” posted on 13 the website: “Why is TvPad so awesome? – Because you can watch Chinese, Korean 14 or Japanese TV from anywhere in the world with this awesome device.” The post 15 provided a link to a blog post on the TVpad.com website. Attached hereto as Exhibit 16 78 is a true and correct copy of a printout of the webpage at 17 www.cloudytags.com/linkdetails/471437.html, which printout I personally confirmed
18 accurately reflects the contents of that webpage on February 5, 2015

19 24. TVpad.com offers TVpad devices for sale to consumers, including to 20 consumers in the United States, the State of California, and the Los Angeles area.
21 TVpad.com sells the TVpad3 model for $259 and the TVpad4 model for $329.
22 Attached hereto as Exhibit 79 is a true and correct copy of a printout of the product 23 webpage for TVpad devices at <http://www.tvpad.com/en/tvpad-store.html>, which 24 printout I personally confirmed accurately reflects the contents of that webpage on 25 February 5, 2015.

26 25. The TVpad.com website contains both Chinese- and English-language 27 web pages. The English-language homepage of TVpad.com states that the website is 28 an “Authorized TVpad store that ships Genuine and Authentic TVpad products, 1 directly from the factory.” Attached hereto as Exhibit 80 is a true and correct copy of 2 a printout of the webpage at <http://www.tvpad.com/en/>, which printout I personally 3 confirmed accurately reflects the contents of that webpage on February 10, 2015.

4 26. The TVpad.com website advertises and promotes the TVpad device as 5 permitting customers to watch television programming from Asia. For instance, the 6 English-language homepage of TVpad.com states:

7 TVpad is the most popular streaming smart box that offers 8 the best access to Chinese, Korean, and Japanese TV from 9 anywhere in the world. If you live abroad and miss your 10 favorite shows, including dramas, sports, gameshows, 11 news, movies, and music, then TVpad can keep you 12 connected to it all. TVpad is the perfect streaming 13 entertainment solution for students, ex-pats, travelers, and 14 business people that want to turn on the TV and feel like 15 they’re back home.

16 A checklist on the TVpad.com homepage further promotes the availability of “High 17 Definition Live TV,” “Time-Shift Live TV Playback,” “Video On Demand Service,” 18 and “No Monthly Fees.” Exhibit 80.

19 27. A FAQ (Frequently Asked Questions) on TVpad.com boasts about the 20 TVpad’s use of a peer-to-peer network to stream content to TVpad users, stating that 21 “[t]he pictures are high in quality and stable due to the upgraded P2P service [the 22 TVpad device] uses.” Elsewhere, the same FAQ notes: “Most of the apps require 23 streaming, whether it is video or audio, and is it [sic] based on streaming and sharing 24 the data online.” (Emphasis added). Attached hereto as Exhibit 81 is a true and 25 correct copy of a printout of the webpage at http://www.tvpad.com/en/tvpad-
26 frequently-asked-questions.html, which printout I personally confirmed accurately 27 reflects the contents of that webpage on February 5, 2015.

1 28. A blog on TVpad.com routinely promotes the TVpad device as 2 providing customers free access to Chinese television programming and encourages 3 customers to use Infringing TVpad Apps to view CCTV and TVB programs. For 4 example:

5 a. A December 18, 2014 blog post on TVpad.com, entitled “TVpad4 6 On Sale Now!”, states:

7 Not wanting to pay for streaming television? TVpad4 still streams live 8 news, sports, and television programming from stations like SoLive, 9 CCTV and many, many more. On TVpad4 you’ll be able to watch live 10 Chinese (Mandarin and Cantonese) television. Popular shows like The 11 Voice: China, Red Sorghum, and Where are We Going, Dad are all 12 available streaming live in HD. And, with the new H.265 streaming 13 technology, you can be sure to see them in crystal clear HD (emphasis 14 added).

15 Attached hereto as Exhibit 82 is a true and correct copy of a printout of the 16 website at http://www.tvpad.com/en/tvpad-store-blog/tvpad4-on-sale-
17 now.html, which printout I personally confirmed accurately reflects the 18 contents of that webpage on February 5, 2015.

19 b. A July 31, 2014 blog post on TVpad.com states:
20 There are more than 30,000 episodes of Chinese television 21 dramas produced every year in China, which gives 22 audiences a large range of viewing options. Now the 23 television dramas are beginning to gain an overseas 24 following, and include shows that were originally broadcast 25 years ago. With a set on top TV box, it is now even easier 26 for Asians and other foreign audiences to watch all of the 27 popular Chinese dramas.

28 Watch Popular Chinese Television Dramas with TVpad

1 TVpad is a set on top box that gives users hundreds of 2 viewing options. Streaming live channels directly from the 3 Chinese mainland, foreign audiences can watch episodes of 4 all of the most popular Chinese dramas. There are more 5 than 100 channels to choose from, including some that are 6 dedicated to playing only the best Chinese TV dramas.

8 Not only does TVpad feature more channels than other set 9 on top boxes, but it also includes the “on demand” feature.
10 Users now can play back any of their favorite dramas and 11 TV shows up to three days, and never have to worry about 12 missing a single nail biting moment. TVpad also features 13 one of the largest online video libraries, which includes 14 apps just for Chinese dramas.

15 Attached hereto as Exhibit 83 is a true and correct copy of a printout of the 16 webpage at http://www.tvpad.com/en/tvpad-store-blog/the-10-most-popular-
17 overseas-chinese-dramas.html, which printout I personally confirmed 18 accurately reflects the contents of that webpage on February 5, 2015.

19 c. A blog post from TVpad.com entitled “Watch the Latest Movies 20 and More With TVpad” dated June 30, 2014 stated:

21 With hundreds of channels to choose from, Asians living 22 overseas can still watch all of their favorite Chinese and 23 Japanese movies with a TVpad. Older Asians can enjoy 24 watching American movies on HBO, with easy to read 25 Chinese subtitles. Now the language barrier is no longer an 26 issue for TVpad users with an interest in English movies 27 and television programs.
28

1 TVpad also streams live BETV channels [sic] straight from 2 the Chinese mainland, including movies in Cantonese.
3 Viewers will also have access to CCTV which is broadcast 4 directly from the People's Republic of China. Watch 5 reports on the latest Asian movies being released, and stay 6 current with all of the stars and directors (emphasis added).

7 As a result of our investigation, Mintz has determined that the BETV apps are 8 Infringing TVpad Apps that stream CCTV programming. Attached hereto as 9 Exhibit 84 is a true and correct copy of a printout of the archived historical 10 copy of the above-quoted blog post retrieved from the Wayback Machine 11 website from the Internet Archive at 12 https://web.archive.org/web/20140816002455/http://www.

14 tvpad.html, which printout I personally confirmed on February 5, 2015 15 accurately reflects the contents of that archived historical copy. By January 3, 16 2015, TVpad.com had altered this blog post so that it no longer specifically 17 mentions CCTV or the infringing BETV app, but still promotes more generally 18 the availability of infringing television programming on the TVpad device.
19 Attached as Exhibit 85 is a true and correct copy of a printout of the webpage 20 at http://www.tvpad.com/en/tvpad-store-blog/watch-the-latest-movies-and-
21 more-with-tvpad.html, which printout I personally confirmed accurately
22 reflects the contents of that webpage on February 5, 2015.

23 d. A blog post from TVpad.com entitled "Which TVpad App Is 24 Right For You?" dated June 19, 2014 promoted use of the Infringing TVpad 25 apps on the TVpad device to view CCTV programs and programming from 26 Hong Kong:

27 One App for All Sporting Events
28

Broadcast live from the Chinese mainland is the Chinese Central Television or CCTV 5. Found in the TVpad app store as BETV/Online [sic] sports, this app can satisfy every sports lover. Follow the Chinese national men's and women's soccer teams throughout their seasons, and watch in wonder as China enters onto the international basketball court.

Dramas, Documentaries, and More

There are over 100 different Asian channels and apps to choose from, but lovers of television shows will certainly want to install the HITV app. Viewers can watch hundreds of live shows from Hong Kong, including all of their favorite dramas. Catch up with recent storylines and favorite characters, and playback missed episodes anytime.

With live TV from Hong Kong, Asian viewers living abroad can also stay up to date on all of the latest news and events on the Chinese mainland. See news reports from different provinces, and travel documentaries too [sic] unique and interesting places. See reports on finances and current affairs, and stay in touch with world events. With all of the different Asian television programming available with this app, there will always be something fun and entertaining to watch on TV (emphasis added).

As a result of our investigation, Mintz has determined that the BETV and Online Sports apps are Infringing TVpad Apps that stream CCTV programming, and that the HITV app is an Infringing TVpad App that streams

1 TVB programming. A Mintz investigator under the direction and control of my 2 supervisor Christopher Weil used the Wayback Machine website from the 3 Internet Archive to access an archived historical copy of the above blog post.

9 confirmed on February 5, 2015 accurately reflects the contents of that archived 10 historical copy. As of approximately January 3, 2015, this page was no longer 11 accessible on TVpad.com.

12 e. A blog post on TVpad.com entitled “Zhou Xun Crowned China’s 13 Favorite Celebrity” and dated December 8, 2014 stated that the TVpad device 14 provides “complete access to CCTV.” Attached hereto as Exhibit 87 is a true 15 and correct copy of a printout of Google’s cached copy of the webpage at 16 webpage at http://www.tvpad.com/en/tvpad-store-blog/zhou-xun-crowned-

19 that webpage.

20 29. In addition to the research by Mintz investigators of statements found on 21 the TVpad.com website, I also purchased two TVpad devices from TVpad.com, and 22 had phone calls with representatives of TVpad.com.

23 30. In May 2014, prior to making my first TVpad purchase from 24 TVpad.com, I located a New Jersey telephone number listed for Asha Media on a 25 Better Business Bureau website. On May 30, 2014, I called the New Jersey 26 telephone number listing and spoke to an individual identifying himself as Amit. I 27 believe “Amit” is Amit Bhalla, the President of Asha Media, based on information 28 recounted above tying Amit Bhalla to Asha Media and statements made by the Amit

1 with whom I spoke by phone. During the course of our phone conversation, Amit 2 stated that his company is a large distributor of TVpads and he is an “account 3 manager” who sells wholesale to retailers, electronics stores, and supermarkets.
4 Stating that he cannot deal with individual sales, Amit directed me to make 5 individual purchases through the website at TVpad.com and provided me with a 6 coupon code for a $20 discount. Amit stated that the TVpad device relies on apps for 7 streaming of media, but that TVpad.com also provides a USB flash drive with the 8 TVpad device pre-loaded with popular apps. When I asked whether there were any 9 subscription fees associated with the TVpad device or its apps, Amit said “no” and 10 that there is only a one-time payment, which is the purchase of the TVpad. When I 11 asked Amit about available Chinese-language channels, Amit told me he did not 12 speak or read Chinese, but he offered to email me a list of Chinese-language channels 13 available on the device. During our phone conversation, Amit confirmed that CCTV 14 channels were available on the TVpad device and mentioned that the World Cup was 15 coming up and would be available on a CCTV channel.

16 31. On June 2, 2014, I used the TVpad.com website to purchase a TVpad 17 device for a total cost of $239. On June 2, 2014, I personally received an email 18 confirming my purchase from support@tvpad.com. Attached hereto as Exhibit 88 is 19 a true and correct copy of that email, with the street address and telephone number 20 Mintz used for this investigation redacted because the redacted information reflects 21 confidential and proprietary business information. On June 9, 2014, I received a 22 package addressed to me containing a TVpad device at an address in New York, New 23 York. As set forth more fully in the Braak Declaration, my colleague Mr. Braak 24 picked up this TVpad device from the address in New York and reviewed the 25 operation of the TVpad device I purchased from TVpad.com.

26 32. On June 3, 2014, I again called the number I had for Asha Media and 27 spoke to the same individual identifying himself as Amit. During my phone 28 conversation with Amit, I stated I had not received from him the email with Chinese-

1 language television channel listings and provided Amit with my email address.
2 Shortly thereafter, I personally received an email from an individual using the email 3 address support@tvpad.com who identified himself as “Charles Franco.” Attached 4 to the email was a Chinese-language Excel spreadsheet listing CCTV, TVB, and 5 other Chinese-language television channels available through the TVpad device and 6 listing the Infringing TVpad Apps that access those channels. Attached hereto as 7 Exhibit 89 are true and correct copies of the email and Chinese-language spreadsheet 8 I received from Charles Franco on June 3, 2014, and a certified translation of that 9 spreadsheet.

10 33. On October 15, 2014, I emailed a written request to speak with a 11 customer representative through a contact form available on the TVpad.com website.
12 I provided my email address in the contact form, wrote that I had a question about 13 “HK television,” and asked for a telephone number I could call. On October 15, 14 2014, an individual using the email address support@tvpad.com who identified 15 herself as “Abby Zhou (Your Awesome Customer Support Agent)” responded by 16 email to me. In her email, Ms. Zhou stated in part, “The attachment is the channels 17 list of tvpad3.pls [sic] know more hk channels details from it.” Ms. Zhou attached to 18 her email a Chinese-language Excel spreadsheet identical to the spreadsheet sent to 19 me by “Charles Franco” on June 3, 2014. The spreadsheet included the same CCTV 20 and TVB channels and corresponding Infringing TVpad Apps listed in the previous 21 spreadsheet I had received from Mr. Franco. The email contained a telephone 22 number for TVpad.com customer support, which was a mobile telephone in 23 Mainland China. Attached hereto as Exhibit 90 are true and correct copies of the 24 email and spreadsheet I received from Abby Zhou, and a certified translation of that 25 spreadsheet.

26 34. On October 16, 2014, I called the same New Jersey telephone number 27 for Asha Media I had used to speak with “Amit” on May 30, 2014 and June 3, 2014.
28 I again spoke with the same individual identifying himself as Amit. Amit directed

1 me to make individual TVpad purchases through the website at TVpad.com and 2 provided me with a coupon code for a $20 discount. He stated that the TVpad device 3 does not require monthly fees and can be used as long as the customer wants to use 4 it. He also stated the TVpad device has all of the Hong Kong channels. In response 5 to my questions, Amit could not provide me with specifics on what Hong Kong 6 channels can be viewed on the TVpad device, but he asked for my email address. I 7 provided Amit with the email address slau1014@yahoo.com. Amit then stated that 8 Abby Zhou had already responded to my email. He said Ms. Zhou was the support 9 representative based in China and that for any future questions, I could also contact 10 her. When I asked how long it would take to ship the TVpad device, Amit stated that 11 his company has two warehouses—one in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and the other 12 in Los Angeles, California.

13 35. On October 17, 2014, I used the TVpad.com website to purchase a 14 second TVpad device for a total cost of $239. On October 17, I personally received 15 an email confirming my purchase from support@tvpad.com. Attached hereto as 16 Exhibit 91 is a true and correct copy of the email confirmation, with the street 17 address and telephone number Mintz used for this investigation redacted because the 18 redacted information reflects confidential and proprietary business information. On 19 October 21, 2014, a package addressed to me containing the TVpad device was 20 received at a Mintz address in West Hills, California, and was then forwarded to my 21 colleague Nicholas Braak in New York for review.

TSANG DECLARATION

DECLARATION OF SAMUEL P. TSANG

I, Samuel P. Tsang, declare as follows:

1. I am the Vice President, Operations for Plaintiff TVB Holdings (USA), Inc. (“TVB (USA)”). I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein, and, if called upon as a witness, I could and would testify competently about these facts, except for those matters stated expressly upon information and belief, which matters are believed to be true. I make this declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ motion for a preliminary injunction.

2. I have worked for TVB (USA) in various roles since 2000. In 2002, I was promoted to Vice President. In my current role as Vice President, Operations, I am responsible for overseeing the functions of Subscription Sales and Customer Service, U.S. News Production, Television Production, Engineering, and Information Technology. As a result of my experience working for TVB (USA) since 2000 and in my different roles as Customer Service Manager, Vice President, Marketing, and now Vice President, Operations, I am familiar with TVB (USA)’s business, including its history as a company, its programming, its programming distribution models, and its agreements with other companies to distribute its television programming within the United States. I am also familiar with the TVpad device, the infringing television programming available on that device, and TVB (USA)’s investigation of the manufacturer and distributors of the TVpad.

TVB (USA)’s Parent Company

3. TVB (USA) is a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of Television Broadcasts Limited (“TVB”), the largest and most popular producer of Cantonese-language television programming in the world. In Hong Kong, TVB operates five over-the-air television channels—Jade, J2, Jade HD, iNews (Cantonese), and Pearl (English)—and 13 pay TV channels. TVB also has operations in Taiwan, owning

1 the popular TVBS, TVBS-News, and TVBS-G channels. (Hereafter, I shall refer to 2 TVB's Hong Kong channels together with its Taiwan channels collectively as the 3 "TVB Channels").

4 4. Under a series of written license agreements, TVB (USA) and its 5 affiliates broadcast and distribute TVB programming in the United States.

6 TVB's Television Programs

7 5. TVB produces and distributes a wide variety of television 8 programming including episodic dramas, comedies, news programs, sports, and 9 other programs that are initially broadcast in Hong Kong and subsequently or 10 simultaneously distributed internationally ("TVB Programs"). TVB Programs 11 include the highly popular prime-time drama "Triumph in the Skies II," over 600 12 episodes of the highly successful situation comedy "Come Home Love," and variety 13 shows such as the Anniversary Gala and the Miss Hong Kong Pageant Final.

14 6. TVB spends substantial sums of money each year producing or 15 acquiring rights to its content, including episodic dramas, sporting events, and news 16 programs.

17 7. TVB's wholly owned subsidiary, TVBO Production Limited 18 ("TVBO"), and TVBO's predecessor-in-interest, TVB (Overseas) Limited ("TVB 19 (Overseas)"), have obtained United States copyright registrations for the television 20 programs listed in Exhibit 92 (the "Registered TVB Programs"). The Registered 21 TVB Programs are only a small subset of the total programming that TVB produces 22 and that TVB (USA) and its affiliates distribute in the United States.

23 8. Under a co-production agreement, TVB and TVBO have agreed to co-24 produce TVB television programs and that the copyrights subsisting in the co-25 produced programs throughout the world except Hong Kong vest in and are owned 26 by TVBO. TVBO, through its affiliate, TVBI Company Limited, has granted TVB 27 (USA) the exclusive right to reproduce, publicly perform, and transmit TVB 28 Programs in all media in the United States. In turn, TVB (USA) has sublicensed

1 certain of those rights to its affiliate, TVB (USA), Inc., which, in turn, has 2 sublicensed certain rights to TVB Satellite Platform, Inc. (“TVB Satellite 3 Platform”).

4 9. Although TVB (USA) has licensed certain rights in the United States, 5 TVB (USA) retains and owns the exclusive rights to reproduce, publicly perform, 6 and transmit TVB programming, including but not limited to the Registered TVB 7 Programs, in the United States on platforms other than satellite and OTT (linear 8 channel only).¹ These exclusive rights retained and owned by TVB (USA) include 9 the exclusive rights to reproduce, publicly perform, and transmit TVB 10 programming, including but not limited to the Registered TVB Programs, in the 11 United States via Internet Protocol Television (IPTV)² and OTT in video-on-12 demand format.

13 U.S. Distribution of TVB Programs Through Lawful Channels

14 10. Certain TVB Programs that originally aired in Hong Kong are 15 broadcast by TVB (USA) in the United States on the following channels: TVB1, 16 TVB2, TVBe, TVB Pearl, TVBHD, TVB8, TVB Drama, TVBS, Jade SF, Jade NY, 17 and Jade LA (collectively, the “TVB U.S. Channels”). TVB (USA)’s most popular 18 television package is called the Jadeworld Package, which includes TVB1, TVB2, 19 TVBe, and TVBS.

20 11. TVB (USA) and its affiliates distribute the TVB U.S. Channels and the 21 TVB Programs carried on those channels through license agreements with a limited 22 number of cable television systems, satellite television services, and other multi-23 channel distributors, including Plaintiff DISH Network L.L.C. (“DISH”), Time-

25 ¹ For purposes of this motion, “Over-the-Top” or “OTT” refers to the 26 delivery of video programming using an Internet connection that is not owned, managed, or operated by the party delivering the programming (e.g., Netflix).

27 ² For purposes of this motion, “IPTV” refers to electronic delivery of video 28 programming via Internet protocol over a service provider’s own infrastructure (e.g., AT&T’s U-verse).

1 Warner Cable, Comcast Cable, AT&T U-Verse, and Verizon FiOs (collectively, the 2 “U.S. Distribution Partners”). These U.S. Distribution Partners pay TVB (USA) or 3 its affiliates licensing fees for the right to broadcast or transmit the TVB U.S.
4 Channels and the TVB Programs carried on those channels to their customers in the 5 United States.

6 12. In 2012, Plaintiff DISH entered into a license agreement with TVB
7 Satellite Platform. Pursuant to the license agreement, DISH owns the exclusive 8 right to transmit via satellite in the United States certain TVB U.S. Channels and the 9 TVB Programs comprising those channels. The license agreement also grants to 10 DISH the exclusive right to transmit certain TVB U.S. Channels and the TVB 11 Programs comprising those channels in the United States via OTT television 12 services, except for video-on-demand content.

13 13. The U.S. Distribution Partners carry various TVB U.S. Channels and 14 TVB Programs, depending on the terms of their license agreements. In general, 15 there is a twelve-hour delay (referring to the U.S. East Coast time schedule) 16 between the first transmission of TVB Programs in Hong Kong and their initial 17 retransmission in the United States on the TVB U.S. Channels. This delay accounts 18 for the time difference between Asia and the United States and permits TVB 19 Programs to air on TVB U.S. Channels at approximately the same time of day as 20 they air in Asia. Thus, if a TVB Program is first transmitted in Hong Kong at 8PM
21 local time, the same program generally will be aired in the United States twelve 22 hours after that, i.e., at 8PM Eastern time on the same calendar day.

23 14. The U.S. Distribution Partners charge their subscribers subscription 24 fees to access one or more TVB U.S. Channels, including the Jadeworld Package, 25 and the TVB Programs carried on those channels. Typically, the licensing 26 agreements of TVB (USA) and its affiliates require that the U.S. Distribution 27 Partners split some portion of their revenues from subscription fees with TVB 28 (USA) or one of its affiliates.

15. TVB maintains a website at www.tvb.com through which consumers in Hong Kong can access some of its programming over the Internet. Only users with Hong Kong IP addresses can access this TVB programming because geo-blocking prevents users outside of Hong Kong from receiving anything other than certain promotional clips. This geo-blocking protects the exclusive copyright interests of TVB (USA) in the United States.

16. TVB has also launched several mobile applications, including myTV, GOTV, TVB News, TVB Finance, TVB Zone, TVB fun, and myEPG, which allow users to access streaming video of certain TVB Programs. Those applications are also geo-blocked outside of Hong Kong.

17. TVB (USA) spends substantial sums of money each year on the facilities, equipment, and the labor necessary to distribute the TVB U.S. Channels and TVB Programs in the United States. These costs include the costs associated with creating and maintaining a dedicated point-to-point data fiber from Hong Kong to Norwalk, California (where TVB (USA) is located); complex, state-of-the-art broadcasting systems; and expert personnel responsible for overseeing the process of creating a unique feed of TVB programming for distribution in the United States, editing those programs, and overseeing the technical logistics of that distribution.

Infringement of TVB Channels and TVB Programs
Through the TVpad Retransmission Service

18. As part of my job responsibilities, I have led TVB (USA)'s investigation of the TVpad device and the unlicensed international television programming accessible to U.S. consumers through the TVpad device (the "TVpad Retransmission Service").³ I personally have inspected several TVpad devices

³ TVB (USA) previously filed a lawsuit against Tai Lake Communication Inc., a Los Angeles distributor of the TVpad device, alleging violations of the anti-circumvention provisions of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, contributory copyright infringement, false endorsement under the Lanham Act, and unfair competition. See TVB Holdings (USA), Inc. v. Tai Lake Communication Inc., 12-cv-9809 (C.D. Cal.). The Tai Lake case was stayed by Tai Lake's bankruptcy.

1 acquired by TVB (USA) in the course of its investigation. In addition, I personally 2 have viewed the streamed video content delivered by the TVpad Retransmission 3 Service. Also, I personally have inspected the software applications or “apps” 4 available through the TVpad device’s “TVpad Store” to determine which apps 5 illegally stream TVB Channels and TVB Programs without authorization.

6 19. In June 2014, TVB (USA) and DISH joined co-Plaintiffs China Central 7 Television (“CCTV”) and China International Communications Co., Ltd. (“CICC”)
8 in their anti-piracy efforts involving the TVpad device and the TVpad 9 Retransmission Service, including working with the Mintz Group, Inc. (“Mintz”) in 10 its private investigation.

11 20. The TVpad device is a set-top box. When a TVpad user connects the 12 TVpad device to the Internet and then to a television, apps downloaded from the 13 device’s TVpad Store stream television channels and programs from Asia to the 14 user in the United States for viewing. There are currently two models of the TVpad 15 device—TVpad3 and TVpad4—that are being sold to consumers in the United 16 States.

17 21. Based on TVB (USA)’s own investigation, as well as Mintz’s 18 investigation in preparation for this lawsuit, I know that infringing applications 19 available through the TVpad Store on the TVpad device provide television content 20 to TVpad customers by capturing TVB Channels from Hong Kong and Taiwan, as 21 well as capturing other Asian television programming from China, Korea, Japan, 22 and Vietnam, and streaming that pirated content to TVpad users in the United 23 States.

24 22. Some TVpad applications stream live broadcasts of TVB Channels 25 from Asia at the same time they air in Asia. (I shall hereafter refer to this

26
27 Thereafter, TVB filed suit against Tai Lake’s principal, Kenny Chen, alleging the 28 same claims. TVB Holdings (USA), Inc. v. Kenny Chen, 2:14-cv-03064 (C.D. Cal.).
The Chen case recently settled.

1 application function as the “live” function.) Some TVpad applications stream 2 broadcasts of TVB Channels from Asia with a 12-hour time delay from the time
3 they air in Asia. (I shall hereafter refer to this application function as the “time-4 shift” function.) Some TVpad applications also permit users of the TVpad device to 5 play broadcasts of TVB Channels from Asia for up to three days after they air in 6 Asia. (I shall hereafter refer to this application function as the “replay live” 7 function.) Finally, some TVpad applications stream previously aired TVB 8 Programs “on-demand.” (I shall hereafter refer to this TVpad function as the 9 “video-on-demand” function.) I shall refer collectively to the TVpad applications 10 that stream TVB Channels and TVB Programs without authorization as the 11 “Infringing TVpad Apps”.

12 23. Neither TVB (USA) nor any of its affiliates have granted the 13 Defendants in this action or any other party a license or other permission to 14 perform, stream, transmit, reproduce, display, exhibit, or distribute TVB Channels 15 or TVB Programs through the Infringing TVpad Apps in the United States, and 16 TVB (USA) and its affiliates receive no revenue for this unauthorized streaming.

17 24. Through my own investigation of the TVpad device and consultation 18 with Mintz, TVB (USA) has identified the following Infringing TVpad Apps with 19 live, time-shift, video-on-demand, and/or replay live functions that stream the 20 following TVB Channels and TVB Programs to TVpad users in the United States 21 without authorization:

25. One of the Mintz investigators with whom TVB (USA) has worked as part of our TVpad investigation is Nicholas Braak. As detailed in the accompanying Braak Declaration, which I have reviewed, between September 29 and October 9, 2014, Mr. Braak recorded infringing public performances of 23 episodes of TVB Programs streamed through certain of the Infringing TVpad Apps in live, time-shift, and replay live modes. TVBO has United States copyright registrations for those 23 episodes of TVB Programs. See Exhibit 92, part 1, entitled “Registered TVB Programs (Live),” for a list of those 23 Registered TVB Programs. The unauthorized streaming of these 23 Registered TVB Programs represent only a small fraction of the infringing public performances of TVB Programs transmitted without authorization through the TVpad. Each and every day, 24 hours a day, the Infringing TVpad Apps stream to U.S. TVpad users all of the copyrighted content on TVB Channels from Asia without permission and without any fees being paid to TVB (USA) or the U.S. Distribution Partners.

26. In October and November 2014, I personally reviewed the infringing Gang Yue Kuai Kan app, Gang Yue Wang Luo Dian Shi app, and Gang Tai Wu Xia apps (collectively, the “VOD Apps”) using a TVpad3 device in TVB (USA)’s office in Norwalk, California, and in my home in Irvine, California. The purpose of

1 my review was to determine which TVB Programs the VOD Apps offer for video-2 on-demand streaming in the United States. I opened each VOD App and personally 3 observed what TVB series and episodes were available for streaming by that VOD 4 App. I took photographs of what appeared on the television screen, documenting 5 the TVB program titles and episodes available on each of the VOD Apps. Attached 6 hereto as Exhibit 93 are true and correct copies of the photographs I took during my 7 review of the VOD Apps.

8 27. Because of the large number of TVB Programs offered for video-on-9 demand streaming through the VOD Apps, I did not open and stream each and 10 every TVB episode offered by those apps. Instead, I spot checked the streaming 11 function of the infringing VOD Apps by streaming and recording portions of 12 episodes of certain TVB Programs. I personally observed and recorded excerpts of 13 a total of 406 episodes of TVB Programs for which TVBO and TVB (Overseas)
14 have U.S. copyright registrations. See Exhibit 92, part 2, entitled “Registered TVB 15 Programs (VOD),” for a list of those 406 Registered TVB Programs.

16 Irreparable Harm to TVB (USA)’s Business

17 28. Defendants’ infringing conduct in providing, inducing, and facilitating 18 unauthorized streaming of TVB Channels and TVB Programs in the United States 19 has caused and, unless enjoined, will continue to cause serious and irreparable 20 injury to TVB (USA) in at least the following ways, all of which are inherently and 21 practically difficult to measure.

22 29. First, Defendants’ infringing conduct in providing and facilitating 23 unauthorized streaming of TVB Channels and TVB Programs significantly reduces 24 a valuable revenue stream to TVB (USA) and its affiliates. Through the TVpad 25 Retransmission Service, Defendants compete directly with TVB (USA) and its U.S.
26 Distribution Partners in distributing TVB Channels and TVB Programs in the 27 United States. In substance, Defendants are operating a wholly unauthorized and 28 free TVB retransmission service in the United States. This has caused and will

1 continue to cause TVB (USA)'s U.S. Distribution Partners to lose an unknown 2 number of subscribers who otherwise would be willing to pay subscription fees for 3 access to TVB U.S. Channels and TVB Programs. When the U.S. Distribution 4 Partners lose paying subscribers, it reduces the licensing revenues that TVB (USA)
5 and its affiliates receive from the U.S. Distribution Partners because revenue 6 payments are based on the number of their subscribers who subscribe to TVB U.S.
7 Channels or packages.

8 30. Although it is difficult to calculate the amount of revenue TVB (USA)
9 has lost in this way because Plaintiffs do not know how many customers TVB 10 (USA)'s U.S. Distribution Partners have lost as a result of Defendants' unlawful 11 activities, I can explain the magnitude of the loss based on my knowledge and 12 experience. Prior to the launch of TVpad in 2011, TVB (USA)'s U.S. distribution 13 revenue had been increasing every year. But since the launch of the TVpad device, 14 our annual U.S. distribution revenue has been dropping, especially in the last two 15 years. From 2011 to December 2014, our U.S. distribution revenue has decreased 16 by more than 40%, totaling millions of dollars in lost revenues.

17 31. I have personally observed the popularity of the TVpad device. I know 18 many Chinese-Americans who have purchased a TVpad device to watch TVB 19 programming. I have also observed that U.S. TVpad distributors advertise the 20 TVpad device in major Chinese-language newspapers in the United States, online, 21 and at events in the Chinese-American community. Based on my personal 22 experience, my understanding of the ethnic Chinese television market in the United 23 States, and my experience working for TVB(USA), I conclude that a substantial 24 factor in the precipitous drop in our subscriber base has been and continues to be 25 unfair competition from the TVpad device and TVpad Retransmission Service, 26 which can (and do) make TVB programming available to U.S. customers with no 27 monthly fees solely because Defendants do not pay program license fees to us or 28 anyone else. As noted above, it is difficult to calculate the amount of revenue TVB

1 (USA) has lost in this way because we do not know how many subscribers and 2 prospective subscribers TVB (USA) has lost due to the TVpad device and TVpad 3 Retransmission Service.

4 32. In addition, by providing the live, time-shift, video-on-demand, and 5 replay live functions found in the Infringing TVpad Apps, the TVpad device 6 basically encompasses all the different functions there are to allow any TVpad user 7 to watch TVB Channels and TVB Programs at any time the user desires. Each of 8 these functions represents a potential revenue stream to TVB (USA), but 9 Defendants have usurped this legitimate market. This unfair competition 10 undermines TVB (USA)'s U.S. Distribution Partners' competitive position in the 11 market, and thus diminishes TVB (USA)'s existing as well as potential revenue.
12 The precise scope of the harm is difficult to quantify, but I am certain that the 13 magnitude of the harm has already affected TVB (USA)'s stability and standing in 14 the market.

15 33. Second, Defendants' infringing conduct in providing and facilitating 16 unauthorized streaming undermines TVB (USA)'s strategic choices about where, 17 when, and how to distribute its programs, particularly because TVB (USA) has 18 chosen to limit distribution of TVB programming to a small number of U.S.
19 Distribution Partners. TVB (USA) also carefully controls the timing and location of 20 the distribution of TVB's television programs in the United States to create the 21 maximum incentive for U.S. customers to purchase access to TVB U.S. Channels 22 through their cable, satellite, or telecommunications providers.

23 34. For example, in the United States, TVB (USA) generally broadcasts its 24 popular dramas based on the East Coast time schedule approximately twelve hours 25 after they first air in Hong Kong, so that United States viewers may watch new 26 episodes during the traditional prime time scheduling block between 6PM and 27 11PM on weeknights. In turn, our U.S. Distribution Partners value the right to 28 broadcast new episodes in this prime time scheduling block. These U.S.

1 Distribution Partners rely on the understanding that, in their particular time zone, 2 they—along with other authorized U.S. Distribution Partners—all will air a new 3 episode at exactly the same time so that their customers get access to fresh, timely 4 content at the same time as their competitors’ customers. This is particularly 5 important for TVB’s popular dramas, many of which are “cliff hangers” that create 6 a great deal of anticipation and excitement from episode to episode.

7 35. By streaming live broadcasts of TVB Channels from Asia at the same 8 time those broadcasts air in Asia, Defendants destroy TVB (USA)’s programming 9 strategies and upset the legitimate expectations of our U.S. Distribution Partners.
10 For example, if a popular drama airs at 8PM on TVB’s Jade Channel in Hong 11 Kong, the Infringing TVpad Apps that stream live television will show that TVB 12 drama at approximately 4AM Los Angeles time. A TVpad user living in Los 13 Angeles can watch the TVB drama at 4AM rather than having to wait until later that 14 day to see the show on an authorized TVB U.S. Channel. Equally damaging, the 15 TVpad user in Los Angeles could use an Infringing Application with a replay live 16 function or video-on-demand function to watch the show at a more convenient 17 time—for example, the following morning or during a break from work the next 18 day—but still several hours before the show is aired on a TVB U.S. Channel by one 19 of our authorized U.S. Distribution Partners.

20 36. In addition, Defendants’ unlawful conduct deprives TVB (USA) of its 21 right not to retransmit the TVB Channels in the United States in their original form, 22 as well as to limit or curate the TVB Programs that will air in the United States.
23 TVB (USA) does not distribute all of the programming from TVB’s Hong-Kong 24 and Taiwan channels in the United States, and for that reason it creates a unique 25 feed for the TVB U.S. Channels. TVB (USA) carefully chooses the content 26 distributed on the TVB U.S. Channels to fit the tastes of the U.S. market.
27 Defendants’ unauthorized streaming of all TVB Channels and TVB Programs aired 28 in Asia deprives TVB (USA) of its ability to curate its television programming for a

1 United States audience. This loss of control threatens to hurt TVB (USA)'s 2 goodwill with U.S. audiences and U.S. Distribution Partners, and the precise scope 3 of the harm is difficult to quantify.

4 37. Third, Defendants' unlawful conduct significantly reduces the value of 5 video-on-demand rights that TVB (USA) can offer its U.S. Distribution Partners. In 6 addition to licensing the TVB U.S. Channels, TVB (USA) can also license to cable, 7 satellite, and other television providers the right to offer subscribers access to either 8 previously aired TVB Programs or classic/popular TVB Programs for "on demand" 9 viewing on standard televisions and mobile devices. The free availability in the 10 TVpad Store of Infringing TVpad Apps that provide a video-on-demand function 11 undermines TVB (USA)'s ability to grant a lucrative exclusive license for video-on-12 demand content because our prospective licensees' potential customers can get the 13 same video-on-demand service through the TVpad for free.

14 38. Fourth, Defendants' infringing conduct in providing and facilitating 15 unauthorized streaming of TVB Channels and TVB Programs in the United States 16 interferes with TVB (USA)'s ability to develop and exploit a lawful market for 17 Internet distribution of its television programs in the United States. As noted above, 18 DISH is our U.S. Distribution Partner for delivery of TVB content to subscribers 19 via OTT (linear) streaming over the Internet. The TVpad Retransmission Service 20 competes directly with DISH's Internet-based streaming service (called 21 "DishWorld," soon to be rebranded as "Sling International") because of the 22 similarity of the technology, damaging TVB (USA)'s relationship and goodwill 23 with DISH. In addition, the TVpad Retransmission Service threatens to confuse 24 consumers about Internet-based distribution channels more generally, including 25 about what constitutes lawful Internet-based exploitation and whether payment is 26 required for access to TVB Channels and TVB Programs through the Internet.

27 39. Fifth, Defendants' infringing conduct in providing and facilitating 28 unauthorized streaming of TVB Channels and TVB Programs in the United States

1 threatens TVB (USA)'s ability to negotiate favorable license agreements with its 2 U.S. Distribution Partners in the United States. As noted above, our U.S.
3 Distribution Partners pay fees to TVB (USA) and its affiliates for the right to 4 transmit TVB U.S. Channels and certain TVB Programs in the United States. As 5 further noted above, Defendants' unauthorized streaming of TVB Programs in the 6 United States competes directly with our U.S. Distribution Partners, potentially 7 undercutting the value of their license agreements. If Defendants are permitted to 8 continue competing directly with our U.S. Distribution Partners by illegally stealing 9 and streaming TVB's own content, it inevitably will reduce the amount that U.S.
10 Distribution Partners are willing to pay TVB (USA) and its affiliates, thereby 11 significantly reducing TVB (USA)'s revenues through license agreements for 12 retransmission in the United States.

13 40. In addition, the unlicensed availability of TVB Channels and TVB 14 Programs undermines TVB (USA)'s relationships with its U.S. Distribution 15 Partners and damages TVB (USA)'s goodwill with them.

16 41. Sixth, Defendants' infringing conduct impairs TVB (USA)'s brand, 17 reputation, and goodwill with consumers by associating TVB programming with 18 poor quality viewing experiences on the TVpad device. TVB (USA) takes steps to 19 safeguard its reputation with respect to the quality of the viewing experience that 20 viewers can expect when they watch TVB Channels and TVB Programs. Many of 21 the license agreements that TVB (USA) and its affiliates have with U.S.
22 Distribution Partners require that certain quality standards be met. TVB (USA) has 23 no contract with any of the Defendants and therefore lacks any way to ensure that 24 they provide viewers with a quality viewing experience. As set forth in detail in the 25 accompanying Braak Declaration, which I have reviewed, Mintz investigators have 26 documented numerous problems with the TVpad viewing experience. In addition, 27 Mintz investigators have reviewed popular TVpad forums and discovered that 28 posters on those forums frequently complain about technical problems with the 1 TVpad device, including poor image quality and interruptions in service.

2 Associating TVB Channels and TVB Programs with Defendants' poor-quality 3 TVpad service threatens to harm TVB (USA)'s brand and reputation, depriving it of 4 customer goodwill. The harm associated with this injury to reputation and loss of 5 customer goodwill is difficult to quantify.

6 42. In short, through their infringing activity, Defendants have stripped 7 TVB (USA) of control over its own copyrighted works and use those same 8 copyrighted works to compete directly with TVB (USA) and its U.S. Distribution 9 Partners, injuring their business models and depriving them of customer goodwill, 10 causing TVB (USA) harm that is virtually impossible to calculate or quantify.

12 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America 13 that the foregoing is true and correct.

LU DECLARATION

DECLARATION OF CHUNGUANG LU

I, Chunguang Lu, declare as follows:

1. I am the President of Plaintiff China International Communications Co., Ltd. (“CICC”), an affiliate of Plaintiff China Central Television (“CCTV”). I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein, and, if called upon as a witness, I could and would testify competently about these facts, except for those matters stated expressly upon information and belief, which matters are believed to be true. I make this declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ motion for a preliminary injunction.

2. I have worked for CICC in various roles since 2006. In 2013, I was promoted to President. In my role as President, I am responsible for overseeing the entire business operations of CICC, including marketing, customer relations, and licensing relationships with CICC’s distribution partners. As a result of my experience working for CICC since 2006 and in my role as President, I am familiar with CICC’s business and history as a company, and its licensing of CCTV programming in the United States. I am also familiar with the TVpad device, the infringing television programming available on that device, and CICC’s investigation of the manufacturers and distributors of the TVpad device.

CCTV’s Business

3. Plaintiff CCTV is the predominant state television broadcaster in mainland China. CCTV has 42 television channels. CCTV’s flagship over-the-air channels in China are CCTV1 through CCTV14 (collectively, the “CCTV Channels”). CCTV’s television programming reaches more than a billion viewers, more than every major television network in the United States and Europe combined. CCTV is China’s most influential and prolific television program producer, creating and broadcasting a wide variety of television programs, including news, dramas, comedies, sports, documentaries, and entertainment programming. In addition to its

1 television programs, CCTV has also built up a multimedia broadcasting platform and 2 business operation, which includes movies, newspapers, and the Internet.

3 4. CICC is a wholly owned subsidiary of China International Television 4 Corporation (“CITVC”), which, in turn, is a wholly owned subsidiary of CCTV.
5 CICC is responsible for the overseas distribution and promotion of CCTV’s “Great 6 Wall Package.”

7 5. CCTV’s Great Wall Package consists of programming from 22 Chinese 8 television channels including the following CCTV channels: CCTV-4, CCTV-E, 9 CCTV-Entertainment, CCTV-News, CCTV Movies (distributed as “China Movie 10 Channel (CMC)”), and CCTV-Opera. CICC licenses and distributes the Great Wall 11 Package in the United States, Canada, Latin America, Asia, Europe and Southeast 12 Asia. The Great Wall Package is the only package of Chinese television programs 13 approved for overseas broadcast by China’s State Administration of Radio Film and 14 Television. (Hereafter, I shall refer to the CCTV channels included in the Great Wall 15 Package, as distributed in the United States, collectively as the “CCTV U.S.
16 Channels”.)

17 CCTV’s Television Programs

18 6. CCTV produces, distributes, and owns the copyrights to a wide variety 19 of television programming, including episodic dramas, comedies, news programs, 20 sports, and other programs that are initially broadcast in China (“CCTV Programs”).
21 CCTV Programs include episodes of highly successful programs such as “Across the 22 Strait,” “Star Walk,” and “Art Life.”

23 7. CCTV spends substantial sums of money each year producing or 24 acquiring rights to its content, including episodic dramas, sporting events, and news 25 programs. CCTV and its affiliates spend millions of dollars a year advertising and 26 promoting CCTV Programs.

27 8. CCTV has obtained United States copyright registrations for the 28 television programs listed in Exhibit 94 (collectively, the “Registered CCTV

1 Programs”). The Registered CCTV Programs are only a small subset of the total 2 programming that CCTV produces and distributes internationally, including in the 3 United States.

4 Distribution of CCTV Programs Through Lawful Channels

5 9. On behalf of CCTV, CICC distributes the Great Wall Package in the 6 United States through three authorized distribution partners: Plaintiff DISH Network 7 L.L.C. (“DISH”), iTalk TV, and Kylin TV (collectively, the “Authorized U.S.
8 Providers”). DISH is a satellite television and “Over-the-Top” (OTT)¹ services 9 provider of the Great Wall Package. iTalk TV and Kylin TV are OTT providers of 10 the Great Wall Package.

11 10. On behalf of CCTV, CICC enters into license agreements with the 12 Authorized U.S. Providers that give the Authorized U.S. Providers the right to 13 transmit the Great Wall Package, including the CCTV U.S. Channels and the CCTV 14 programs carried on those channels, in the United States. The Authorized U.S.
15 Providers pay CICC licensing fees for the right to transmit CCTV U.S. Channels and 16 certain CCTV Programs to their customers. A portion of the licensing fees that CICC 17 receives from the Authorized U.S. Providers are then paid to CCTV.

18 11. Although CICC licenses certain rights to CCTV programming in the 19 United States, CCTV retains and owns the exclusive right to reproduce, publicly 20 perform, and transmit CCTV channels and programs over the Internet in the United 21 States.

22 12. In 2004, Plaintiff DISH’s predecessor-in-interest, EchoStar Satellite 23 L.L.C., entered into a license agreement with CITVC, which at the time handled U.S.
24 licensing of CCTV television programs before CICC took responsibility for that role.

26
27 ¹ For purposes of this motion, “Over-the-Top” or “OTT” refers to the delivery 28 of video programming using an Internet connection that is not owned, managed, or operated by the party delivering the programming (e.g., Netflix).

1 That license agreement granted to EchoStar the exclusive right to transmit CCTV's 2 Great Wall Package in the United States via satellite.

3 13. DISH and CICC, as successors-in-interest to the original parties to the 4 licensing agreement, have amended and renewed this licensing agreement 5 periodically since 2004. Under the license agreement, as amended, DISH continues 6 to own the exclusive right to transmit the Great Wall Package via satellite in the 7 United States. In 2008, CICC also granted DISH the non-exclusive right to distribute 8 the Great Wall Package via OTT television in the United States.

9 14. Only a small subset of all CCTV Programs that air in China are 10 retransmitted on the CCTV U.S. Channels. For those programs, generally there is at 11 least a twelve-hour delay between the first transmission of a CCTV Program in China 12 and its initial retransmission in the United States on the CCTV U.S. Channels. This 13 delay accounts for the time difference between China and the East Coast of the 14 United States and permits CCTV Programs to air on the CCTV U.S. Channels at 15 approximately the same time of day as they air in China.

16 15. The Authorized U.S. Providers in the United States charge their 17 subscribers subscription fees to access the Great Wall Package. Typically, CICC's 18 licensing agreements require the Authorized U.S. Providers to split some portion of 19 their revenues from subscription fees with CICC.

20 16. Another CCTV affiliate, China Network Television (CNTV), streams
21 CCTV television programming over the Internet from its website at <http://tv.cntv.cn/>.
22 CNTV's webcasts offer interactive audiovisual services, integrating features of 23 Internet-based operations with those of television programming. These include live 24 video, video-on-demand, file upload, search and videocast services that make CNTV 25 a popular online video platform for public information and entertainment.

26 17. CNTV also distributes a number of mobile applications that offer 27 streaming video of certain CCTV Programs, including CCTV SPORTS and CCTV 28

1 NEWS. CNTV makes these apps available for download through the iTunes and 2 Google Play stores, among other authorized sites.

3 18. CICC spends substantial sums of money each year on the facilities, 4 equipment, and labor necessary to distribute the CCTV U.S. Channels and CCTV 5 Programs in the United States. These costs include system building, satellite 6 transponder rent, system maintenance, equipment purchases, and labor.

7 Infringement of CCTV Channels and CCTV Programs
8 Through the TVpad Retransmission Service

9 19. In 2014, CCTV and CICC retained the Mintz Group, Inc. (“Mintz”), a 10 global private investigation company, to investigate Defendants’ operations and to 11 conduct forensic analysis of the TVpad device and of the unlicensed international 12 television programming accessible to U.S. consumers through the TVpad device (the 13 “TVpad Retransmission Service”). Thereafter, TVB Holdings (USA), Inc. and DISH 14 joined CCTV and CICC in their anti-piracy efforts involving the TVpad device and 15 the TVpad Retransmission Service.

16 20. The TVpad device is a set-top box. When a user connects the TVpad 17 device to both the Internet and a television, applications or “apps” available through 18 a built-in software application called the “TVpad Store” on the TVpad device permit 19 the user to view streaming television programs in the United States. There are 20 currently two TVpad models—TVpad3 and TVpad4—that are being sold to 21 consumers in the United States.

22 21. Based on Mintz’s investigation, I understand that infringing applications 23 available through the TVpad Store on the TVpad device intercept CCTV Channels 24 and CCTV Programs from mainland China, as well as other television programming 25 from Asia, and stream that pirated content to TVpad users in the United States and 26 elsewhere around the world.

27 22. Based on Mintz’s investigation, I know that some TVpad applications 28 stream live broadcasts of CCTV Channels from China at the same time they air in China. (I shall hereafter refer to this application function as the “live” function.) Some TVpad applications permit users of the TVpad device to play broadcasts of CCTV Channels from China for up to three days after they air in China. (I shall hereafter refer to this application function as the “replay live” function.) I shall refer collectively to the TVpad applications that stream CCTV Channels and CCTV Programs without authorization as the “Infringing TVpad Apps”.

23. None of CICC, CCTV, or any of their affiliates have granted the Defendants in this action or any other party a license or other permission to stream, transmit or retransmit, or otherwise display, exhibit, perform, copy, and/or distribute CCTV Channels or CCTV Programs through the Infringing TVpad Apps in the United States, and CCTV and CICC receive no revenue for this unauthorized streaming.

24. In consultation with Mintz, CICC has identified the following Infringing TVpad Apps with live and/or replay live functions that stream the following CCTV Channels to TVpad users in the United States without authorization:

	TVpad3	TVpad4

25. One of the Mintz investigators with whom CICC has worked is Nicholas Braak. As detailed in the accompanying Braak Declaration, between September 29 and October 9, 2014, Mr. Braak recorded infringing public performances of 30 episodes of CCTV Programs streamed through these Infringing TVpad Apps on the TVpad device. CCTV has obtained United States copyright registrations for those 30 episodes. See Exhibit 94 for the list of Registered CCTV Programs. Based on Mintz's investigation, I know that the unauthorized streaming of the 30 Registered CCTV Programs represents only a small fraction of the infringing public performances of CCTV Programs transmitted without authorization through the TVpad device. Each and every day, 24 hours a day, these Infringing TVpad Apps on the TVpad device stream to U.S. TVpad users all of the copyrighted content on the CCTV Channels from China without authorization and without any fees being paid to CCTV or its Authorized U.S. Providers.

Irreparable Harm to CICC's and CCTV's Business

26. Defendants' infringing conduct in providing and facilitating unauthorized streaming of CCTV Channels and CCTV Programs in the United States has caused and, unless enjoined, will continue to cause serious and irreparable injury

1 to CCTV and CICC in at least the following ways, all of which are inherently and 2 practically difficult to measure.

3 27. First, Defendants' infringing conduct in providing and facilitating 4 unauthorized streaming of CCTV Channels and CCTV Programs significantly 5 reduces a valuable revenue stream to CCTV and CICC. Through the TVpad 6 Retransmission Service, Defendants compete directly with CCTV, CICC, and their 7 Authorized U.S. Providers in distributing the Great Wall Package in the United 8 States. This has caused and will continue to cause CCTV's Authorized U.S.
9 Providers to lose an unknown number of subscribers who otherwise would be willing 10 to pay subscription fees for access to the Great Wall Package. When the Authorized 11 U.S. Providers lose paying subscribers, it reduces the licensing revenues that CICC 12 and CCTV receive from the Authorized U.S. Providers, which revenue payments are 13 based on the number of their subscribers who subscribe to the Great Wall Package.

14 28. It is difficult to calculate the amount of U.S. licensing revenue CICC 15 and CCTV have lost because Plaintiffs do not know how many subscribers and 16 potential subscribers to the Great Wall Package the Authorized U.S. Providers have 17 lost as a result of Defendants' unlawful activities. However, based on my experience 18 and understanding of our business, the revenue losses suffered by CCTV and CICC 19 have been substantial. Since the launch of the TVpad device in 2011, CICC's annual 20 U.S. licensing revenue has decreased by 41%, totaling millions of dollars in lost 21 revenues. Based on my knowledge and experience as President of CICC, I conclude 22 that a substantial factor in this decline in our subscriber base has been and continues 23 to be unfair competition from the TVpad Retransmission Service, which provides 24 pirated CCTV programming to TVpad users for free without paying program license 25 fees to CCTV, CICC, or anyone else.

26 29. Second, Defendants' infringing conduct in providing and facilitating 27 unauthorized streaming of CCTV Channels and CCTV Programs in the United States 28 threatens CICC's ability to negotiate favorable license agreements on behalf of 1 CCTV with the Authorized U.S. Providers and other distributors in the United States.

2 As noted above, the Authorized U.S. Providers pay fees to CICC for the right to 3 transmit the Great Wall Package. As noted above, the TVpad Retransmission 4 Service competes directly with the Authorized U.S. Providers, potentially 5 undercutting the value of their license agreements. If Defendants are permitted to 6 continue competing directly with the Authorized U.S. Providers using CCTV's own 7 content, it will reduce the amount that Authorized U.S. Providers are willing to pay 8 CICC, thereby significantly reducing the revenues received by CICC and CCTV 9 through license agreements for retransmission in the United States.

10 30. In addition, the unlicensed availability of CCTV Channels and CCTV 11 Programs undermines CCTV's and CICC's relationships with the Authorized U.S.
12 Providers and damages our goodwill with them.

13 31. Third, Defendants' infringing conduct undermines CICC's and CCTV's 14 strategic choices about where, when, and how to distribute their programs, 15 particularly because CCTV and CICC have chosen to limit distribution of CCTV 16 programming to a small number of Authorized U.S. Providers. This loss of control 17 harms CCTV's and CICC's goodwill with U.S. audiences and the Authorized U.S.
18 Providers. CICC carefully controls the timing and location of the distribution of 19 CCTV Programs in foreign markets, including the United States, to create the 20 maximum incentive for customers in those markets to purchase access to the Great 21 Wall Package through the Authorized U.S. Providers.

22 32. For example, in the United States, CCTV's popular television shows are 23 generally retransmitted approximately twelve hours after they first air in China, so 24 that United States viewers can watch new episodes during the traditional prime time 25 scheduling block between 6PM and 10PM on weeknights. In turn, the Authorized 26 U.S. Providers in the United States value the right to retransmit new episodes in this 27 prime time scheduling block. The Authorized U.S. Providers rely on the 28 understanding that, in their particular time zone, they—along with other Authorized

1 U.S. Providers—all will air a new episode at exactly the same time so that their 2 customers get access to fresh, timely content at the same time as their competitors’ 3 customers.

4 33. By streaming live broadcasts of CCTV Channels from China at the same 5 time as those broadcasts air in China, the TVpad Retransmission Service upsets the 6 legitimate expectations of the Authorized U.S. Providers by preemptively 7 retransmitting CCTV Programs before those programs are first aired in the United 8 States by the Authorized U.S. Providers.

9 34. In addition, Defendants’ unauthorized streaming deprives CCTV and 10 CICC of their right not to retransmit most of the CCTV Channels in the United States
11 at all, as well as to limit the CCTV Programs that will air in the United States. CICC 12 carefully chooses the content distributed on the CCTV U.S. Channels to fit the tastes 13 of the U.S. market. Defendants’ unauthorized streaming of all CCTV programs aired 14 in China deprives CCTV and CICC of their ability to curate their television 15 programming for a United States audience. This loss of control threatens to hurt 16 CCTV’s and CICC’s goodwill with U.S. audiences and the Authorized U.S.
17 Providers. The precise scope of the harm is difficult to quantify.

18 35. Fourth, Defendants’ infringing conduct in providing and facilitating 19 unauthorized streaming of CCTV Channels and CCTV Programs in the United States
20 interferes with CCTV’s and CICC’s ability to develop and exploit a lawful market 21 for Internet distribution of their television programs in the United States. As noted 22 above, on behalf of CCTV, CICC enters into licensing agreements with Authorized 23 U.S. Providers, including DISH, that provide Internet-based streaming services. The 24 TVpad Retransmission Service competes directly with those services because of the 25 similarity of the technology, damaging CCTV’s and CICC’s relationship and 26 goodwill with legitimate Internet-based licensees. In addition, the TVpad 27 Retransmission Service threatens to confuse consumers about Internet-based 28 distribution channels more generally, including about what constitutes lawful

1 Internet-based exploitation and whether payment is required for access to CCTV 2 Channels and CCTV Programs.

3 36. Fifth, Defendants' infringing conduct impairs CCTV's brand, 4 reputation, and goodwill with consumers by associating its programming with poor 5 quality viewing experiences on the TVpad device. CCTV and CICC take steps to 6 safeguard CCTV's reputation with respect to the quality of the viewing experience 7 that U.S. viewers can expect when they watch CCTV Channels and CCTV Programs.
8 Many of CICC's license agreements with the Authorized U.S. Providers require that 9 certain quality standards be met. CICC has no contract with any of the Defendants 10 and therefore lacks any way to ensure that they provide viewers with a quality 11 viewing experience. As set forth in detail in the accompanying Braak Declaration, 12 Mintz investigators have documented numerous problems with the TVpad viewing 13 experience. In addition, Mintz investigators have reviewed popular TVpad forums 14 and discovered that posters on those forums frequently complain about technical 15 problems with the TVpad device, including poor image quality and interruptions in 16 service. Associating CCTV Channels and CCTV Programs with Defendants' poor-17 quality service threatens to harm CCTV's and CICC's brand and reputation, 18 depriving them of customer goodwill. The harm associated with this injury to 19 reputation and loss of customer goodwill is difficult to quantify.

KUELLING DECLARATION

DECLARATION OF CHRISTOPHER KUELLING

I, Christopher Kuelling, declare as follows:

1. I am Senior Vice President, International Business & Legal Affairs at DISH Network L.L.C. (“DISH”). I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein, and, if called upon as a witness, I could and would testify competently about these facts, except for those matters stated expressly upon information and belief, which matters are believed to be true. I make this declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ motion for a preliminary injunction.

2. I have been employed by DISH since April 2002. I became the Senior Vice President, International Business & Legal Affairs at DISH in May 2014. Prior to this recent promotion, I served as Vice President, International Programming for approximately five years and my responsibilities included all content acquisition, marketing and sales of foreign language channels for DISH. Prior to that role I served in various capacities including as senior attorney for DISH’s programming department, head of content acquisition for a DISH affiliate in Taiwan, and head of international sports rights acquisition for the same affiliate while based for three years in Europe. In my current role, I have responsibility for certain aspects of DISH’s international channel business, including content rights acquisition and overseeing anti-piracy efforts with regard to unauthorized distribution of video content for which DISH holds exclusive distribution rights. I am familiar with DISH’s business, its history as a company, its video programming offerings, and its programming distribution models, including its agreements with other companies to obtain programming content from both within and outside the United States.

DISH’s Business

3. DISH is the nation’s third-largest pay television service, delivering video services to approximately 14 million customers nationwide through both satellite and Internet platforms. DISH’s primary service is satellite television, which

1 DISH provides to subscribers in return for subscription fees. Through its satellite 2 service, DISH also offers approximately 75 international programming packages 3 containing close to 300 international channels.

4 4. Separately, DISH offers many of the same international packages and 5 channels through its Over-the-Top (“OTT”)¹ television service called “DishWorld” 6 (soon to be rebranded as “Sling International”). DishWorld is an OTT subscription 7 service that provides international television programming on numerous viewing 8 devices including, but not limited to, Apple iPhones and iPads, Android phones and 9 tablets, Samsung Smart TVs, Amazon Fire, Blu-Ray devices, personal computers, 10 and the Roku Streaming Player. The DishWorld OTT service is a standalone service 11 separate from DISH’s satellite delivery business, and a subscriber to the OTT service 12 is not required to also subscribe to satellite service. New subscribers to the DISH 13 satellite service are required to sign a two-year commitment, while new subscribers 14 to the DishWorld service are not required to do so.

15 DISH’s Rights to Transmit CCTV Programming

16 5. In 2004, DISH’s predecessor-in-interest, EchoStar Satellite L.L.C.
17 (“EchoStar”), entered into a license agreement with China International Television 18 Corporation (“CITVC”), a wholly owned subsidiary of China Central Television 19 (“CCTV”). That agreement granted to EchoStar the exclusive right to transmit 20 CCTV’s “Great Wall Package” of television channels in the United States via 21 satellite. The Great Wall Package includes content from 22 Chinese television 22 channels, including the following CCTV channels: CCTV-4, CCTV-E, CCTV-23 Entertainment, CCTV-News, CCTV Movies (distributed as “China Movie Channel 24 (CMC)”), and CCTV-Opera (collectively, the “CCTV U.S. Channels”).

26
27 ¹ For purposes of this motion, “Over-the-Top” or “OTT” refers to the delivery of 28 video programming using an Internet connection that is not owned, managed, or operated by such distributor (e.g., Netflix).

1 6. DISH and China International Communication Co., Ltd. (“CICC”), as 2 successors-in-interest to the original parties to the license agreement, have amended 3 and renewed the license agreement periodically since 2004. Under the license 4 agreement, as amended, DISH continues to own the exclusive right to transmit the 5 Great Wall Package in the United States via satellite. In 2008, CICC also granted 6 DISH the non-exclusive right to distribute CCTV’s Great Wall Package via OTT in 7 the United States.

8 7. Until recently, DISH charged its subscribers $22.99 per month for the 9 Great Wall Package on its satellite service in the United States. In October 2014, as 10 a result of competitive pressure from unauthorized distribution of the Great Wall 11 Package, DISH reduced its price for new customers to $14.99 per month.

12 8. DISH also charges its subscribers $14.99 per month for the Great Wall 13 Package on its DishWorld OTT service in the United States.

14 DISH’s Rights to Transmit TVB Programming

15 9. In 2012, DISH entered into a license agreement with TVB Satellite 16 Platform, Inc., an affiliate of Television Broadcasts Limited (“TVB”) and Plaintiff 17 TVB Holdings (USA), Inc. (“TVB (USA)”). Pursuant to the license agreement, 18 DISH owns the exclusive right to transmit via satellite in the United States the 19 following TVB television channels and the TVB television programs comprising 20 those channels: TVB1, TVB2, TVBe, TVBS, TVB8, TVBV, TVB Pearl, TVB
21 Drama, and TVBHD (collectively, the “TVB U.S. Channels”). The license 22 agreement also grants to DISH the exclusive right to transmit the TVB U.S. Channels 23 and the TVB television programs comprising those channels in the United States via 24 OTT, except for video-on-demand content.

25 10. DISH offers its subscribers access to certain of the TVB U.S. Channels 26 through a television package called the “Jadeworld” Package, which includes TVB1, 27 TVB2, TVBe, TVBS, and CCTV’s CCTV-4.

11. DISH generally charges its subscribers $29.99 per month for the Jadeworld Package on its satellite and DishWorld OTT services in the United States.

Infringement of CCTV and TVB Programming
Through the TVpad Retransmission Service

12. As part of my job responsibilities, I oversee DISH's anti-piracy efforts concerning international programming, including the investigation of "rogue" television services that deliver unlicensed international television programming to U.S. customers, such as the infringing international programming accessible through the TVpad device (the "TVpad Retransmission Service"). In July 2014, DISH (together with TVB (USA)) joined co-Plaintiffs CCTV and CICC in their anti-piracy efforts involving the TVpad device and the TVpad Retransmission Service, including retaining the Mintz Group, Inc. ("Mintz") in its private investigation of the TVpad device, the TVpad Retransmission Service, and of the Defendants named in this action.

13. The TVpad device is a set-top box. When a user connects the TVpad device to both the Internet and a television, applications or "apps" available through a built-in software application called the "TVpad Store" permit users in the United States to view streaming television programs from mainland China, Hong Kong, and other parts of Asia.

14. One of the Mintz investigators with whom DISH has worked is Nicholas Braak. As detailed in the accompanying Braak declaration, which I have reviewed, several applications available in the TVpad Store stream CCTV and TVB channels and television programs from Asia to TVpad users in the United States (the "Infringing TVpad Apps"). DISH has not authorized anyone to stream CCTV or TVB channels or individual programming content comprising such channels through the Infringing TVpad Apps to TVpad users in the United States.

Defendants Refuse to Cease and Desist

15. On or about November 21, 2014, I sent cease-and-desist letters by Federal Express on behalf of DISH, TVB, and CCTV to Defendant Create New Technology (HK) Ltd. (“CNT”), the manufacturer of the TVpad device, and to Defendants Asha Media Group Inc. d/b/a TVpad.com (“Asha Media”), and Club TVpad, Inc. (“Club TVpad,” together with Asha Media, the “U.S. Distributors”). Federal Express confirmed delivery of the cease-and-desist letter to Club TVpad on November 24, 2014. Federal Express confirmed delivery of the cease-and-desist letter to Asha Media on November 26, 2014. On November 23, 2014, Federal Express informed DISH that delivery of the cease-and-desist letter to CNT at its registered address in Hong Kong was attempted but refused by CNT because no specific individual’s name was listed on the package. I then provided Federal Express with the name of CNT’s sole shareholder Zhang Wenwei, but Federal Express informed DISH on November 30, 2014 that CNT had refused delivery with that name as well. True and correct copies of my November 2014 cease-and-desist letters to CNT and the U.S. Distributors are attached hereto as Exhibit 95. True and correct copies of the emails from Federal Express to me and to a DISH employee working under my direction confirming delivery of the cease-and-desist letters to the U.S. Distributors, redacted to remove attorney-client communications, are attached hereto as Exhibit 96. True and correct copies of emails from Federal Express to DISH employees working under my direction evidencing attempts by Federal Express to deliver the cease-and-desist letter to CNT are attached hereto as Exhibit 97.

16. On December 8, 2014, I sent emails to CNT and the U.S. Distributors which attached copies of the cease-and-desist letters addressed to each of them. I have not received any notifications (such as an “undeliverable” message) that would suggest that my email delivery of the cease-and-desist letters to CNT or the U.S. Distributors was unsuccessful. True and correct copies of my emails to CNT and the

2 Exhibit 98.

3 17. On December 8, 2014, in response to my November cease-and-desist 4 2014 letter to Asha Media, I received an email from an individual identifying himself 5 as "Amit" from the email address tvboxplayer@gmail.com "On Behalf of TVPad 6 Authorized Store." I believe that "Amit" is Amit Bhalla, President of Asha Media.
7 The email stated: "I believe you are trying to contact the manufacturer which is 8 www.itvpad.com. We are only a reseller . . . just like amazon, rakutan and sears also 9 selling the product. All legal matters go to the manufacturer. Let me know if I can 10 be of assistance." A true and correct copy of this email is attached hereto as Exhibit 11 99.

12 18. On December 16, 2014, after determining that the exhibits to my 13 previous cease-and-desist letters were inadvertently omitted, I resent my November 14 2014 cease-and-desist letters with the exhibits to CNT and Club TVpad via email.
15 True and correct copies of my emails with their attached cease-and-desist letters and 16 exhibits are attached hereto as Exhibits 100 and 101.

17 19. On December 19, 2014, I emailed another cease-and-desist letter to 18 Amit Bhalla at Asha Media, responding to his December 8, 2014 email and attaching 19 the exhibits that were omitted from my previous cease-and-desist letter to Asha 20 Media. A true and correct copy of my email with its attached cease-and-desist letter 21 and exhibits is attached hereto as Exhibit 102.

22 20. On or about January 12, 2015, I received a letter dated December 17, 23 2014 from a lawyer for Club TVpad responding to my November cease-and-desist 24 letter by pointing out a typographical error, but otherwise ignoring the substantive 25 issues raised in my letter. On January 14, 2015, I sent a corrected version of my 26 cease-and-desist letter to Club TVpad by email to fix the typos in the body of the 27 letter. A true and correct copy of my email with its attached cease-and-desist letter 28 and exhibits is attached hereto as Exhibit 103.

21. My November 2014 cease-and-desist letter to CNT, as updated on December 16, 2014, notified CNT that “we have cause to believe that CNT and/or persons acting in concert with CNT are directly infringing the copyrights in television programming for which DISH, CCTV and/or TVB own exclusive rights, as well as inducing, materially contributing to, and failing to control the blatant infringing activities of others through the TVpad device.” The cease-and-desist letter, as updated, provided CNT with a list of the Infringing TVpad Apps, a list of the CCTV and TVB channels transmitted through those apps, and a representative list of 145 CCTV and TVB programs streamed through the Infringing TVpad Apps without authorization. The cease-and-desist letter demanded that “CNT and any parties acting in concert with CNT, or pursuant to CNT’s direction or control,” immediately (a) cease and desist from “providing CCTV and TVB content through the TVpad and its affiliated network”; and (b) cease and desist from “providing the [Infringing TVpad Apps], and any similar infringing applications, through the TVpad app store or otherwise.” See Exhibits 95, 98, 100.

22. I have received no response from CNT to my cease-and-desist letter, and our investigators have confirmed that CCTV and TVB channels and programs continue to be streamed through the TVpad device despite my cease-and-desist letter.

23. My November 2014 cease-and-desist letters to the U.S. Distributors notified those distributors that they were subject to liability for “secondary copyright infringement because of [their] involvement in the sale and distribution of TVpad devices, [their] inducement of customers to infringe CCTV and TVB programming, and [their] material contribution to the infringing activities of others.” The cease-and-desist letters, as updated, provided the U.S. Distributors with a list of Infringing TVpad Apps, a list of the CCTV and TVB channels transmitted through those apps, and a representative list of 145 CCTV and TVB programs streamed through the Infringing TVpad Apps without authorization. The cease-and-desist letters demanded that the U.S. Distributors immediately (a) cease and desist from “selling

1 TVpad devices that offer the [Infringing TVpad Apps], or any similar infringing 2 applications, through the TVpad app store”; (b) cease and desist from “providing the 3 [Infringing TVpad Apps], and any similar applications”; and (c) cease and desist 4 from “marketing and promoting the availability of CCTV and TVB content on the 5 TVpad, and encouraging consumers to access such content through the TVpad.” See 6 Exhibits 95, 98, 101-103.

7 24. My December 19, 2014 response to Asha Media further stated in 8 relevant part: “We strongly disagree with your statement that Asha Media is ‘only a 9 reseller’ of the TVpad device. In addition to selling a device that delivers pirated 10 content, Asha Media actively induces and encourages customers to purchase and use 11 the TVpad device in order to access and infringe copyrighted Chinese-language 12 television programs, including CCTV and TVB programs. In light of these activities, 13 Asha Media is secondarily liable for the infringing conduct of its customers who use 14 the TVpad device, as well as for the infringing conduct of other parties streaming 15 pirated CCTV and TVB content to the TVpad device.” See Exhibit 102.

16 25. I received no subsequent response from Asha Media to my December 17 19, 2014 letter, and our investigators have confirmed that Asha Media continues to 18 promote the Infringing TVpad Apps and the availability of infringing television 19 programming on the TVpad device. In February 2015, I received a letter from Club 20 TVpad’s lawyer denying that Club TVpad is engaged in infringing conduct, and our 21 investigators have confirmed that Club TVpad continues to promote the Infringing 22 TVpad Apps and the availability of infringing television programming on the TVpad 23 device.

Irreparable Harm to DISH's Business

26. Defendants' infringing conduct in providing, inducing, and facilitating unauthorized streaming of CCTV and TVB channels and programs through the TVpad device competes directly with DISH's satellite and OTT pay television services in the United States.

27. Defendants provide CCTV and TVB television programming to U.S. customers that satisfies the same demand for that programming as DISH's Chinese-language television packages including the Great Wall and Jadeworld Packages. Because Defendants pay no license fees to the copyright owners for the TVpad Retransmission Service, they can provide CCTV and TVB channels and programs without assessing monthly fees to their customers, making their services cheaper and thus more attractive to potential consumers than DISH's competing services. Moreover, as explained in more detail in the accompanying Declarations of Samuel P. Tsang and Lu Chunguang, which I have reviewed, Infringing TVpad Apps on the TVpad device stream CCTV and TVB programming before it is available on DISH in the United States, compounding the competitive harm.

28. The competitive harm is readily apparent when it comes to the DishWorld OTT service, which DISH markets to customers interested in international programming and provides that programming over the Internet to users of connected devices such as iPhones, Android devices, and the Roku set-top box. Users of authorized devices must pay a subscription fee for the DishWorld service to access CCTV and TVB content, while users of the TVpad get illegally streamed CCTV and TVB content for free. This difference places our DishWorld service at a significant and unfair disadvantage vis-à-vis the TVpad device and TVpad Retransmission Service.

29. I have a good-faith belief that, as a result of Defendants' unlawful activities described above, DISH has lost or failed to acquire many subscribers who otherwise would have been willing to pay subscription fees for access to DISH's

1 Great Wall Package of CCTV channels and Jadeworld Package of TVB channels.
2 For instance, with respect to the Great Wall Package, the total number of DISH 3 subscribers and monthly gross activations has been steadily declining from 2011 to 4 the present. With respect to the Jadeworld Package, DISH launched the package in 5 November 2012 and fell well short of meeting the number of subscribers anticipated.
6 Moreover, most of the subscribers to the Jadeworld package on DISH's satellite 7 service had their two year commitments end in the last three months and, in just 8 those three months alone, the number of subscribers has declined significantly.

9 30. Based on my knowledge of the industry and my experience overseeing 10 DISH's anti-piracy efforts, I conclude that this decline in DISH's subscriber base to 11 the Great Wall and Jadeworld packages is attributable, at least in part, to the 12 availability of CCTV and TVB programming for free on the TVpad device. That 13 conclusion is buttressed by feedback from our DISH retailers in the local markets, 14 who see the TVpad being advertised in newspapers and other media.

15 31. In addition, as noted above, DISH has reduced its monthly subscription 16 fee for new customers of the Great Wall Package of CCTV channels from $22.99 to 17 $14.99 per month because of competitive pressure from infringing television services 18 like the TVpad Retransmission Service.

19 32. This subscriber and price erosion has diminished and will continue to 20 diminish DISH's revenues unless enjoined. It is difficult to calculate the amount of 21 revenue DISH has lost in this way because DISH does not know how many 22 customers it has lost or failed to acquire as a result of Defendants' infringing 23 activities.

24 33. Defendants' infringing activities also diminish the value of the exclusive 25 rights conveyed to DISH by license agreements with TVB (USA)'s affiliate and 26 CICC, placing a strain on DISH's business relationships in a manner that is difficult 27 to calculate.
28

1 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that 2 the foregoing is true and correct.
